

TRAINS COLLIDE; 20 ARE DEAD

700 KILLED; THE ISLAND CITY IN RUINS

No Americans Perished in Kingston; United States Sailors Patrolling the Town.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—News from Kingston is still filtering in slowly and is twenty-four hours late, but the worst is now apparently known. The town itself is a wreck, very few of the houses standing remaining habitable, and the population is living in the open. Food and medical supplies continue scarce, but relief ships are hurrying to the stricken city from many quarters, so that there will soon be an alleviation in this respect.

The death list is probably about 700, and the seriously injured number in the neighborhood of 500.

Progress is being made in clearing away the debris. Dynamite is resorted to in clearing away menacing ruins; good order prevails in the city. Admiral Davis, who is in the harbor with the battleships Missouri and Indiana, was called on for help in the work of policing the city and he promptly responded by landing marines. These sea soldiers are now picketing the streets and assisting the British authorities in the maintenance of order.

All mariners are warned that the two lighthouses at the harbor entrance have been destroyed and that the approach to the harbor at night is perilous. Another steamer approaching Kingston and not knowing the con-

ASSEMBLYMAN BURKE IS NEAR DEATH'S DOOR

ASSEMBLYMAN J. J. BURKE.

Assemblyman John J. Burke lies at death's door at the Providence Hospital from an attack of meningitis. The sickness came on the young politician and attorney so suddenly that his friends can hardly realize the seriousness of his condition. Drs. Kane and Hamlin are at his bedside and the report from the hospital this afternoon states that the physicians hold little hope for the life of the Assemblyman from West Oakland.

He has been down from the State capital for the past few days, and yesterday at his residence, 322 Magnolia street, he complained of a headache, but did not feel very sick. This morning his condition was so bad that he was immediately removed to the Providence Hospital. Drs. Kane and Hamlin were in attendance all morning, trying to render all possible medical aid to the sufferer, but nothing the physicians can do seems to bring relief.

J. J. Burke is one of the best known young attorneys in this city. At 2:30 this afternoon Mr. Burke was said to be dying.

CITIES BURIED BENEATH A RAGING FLOOD

Graver Dangers Are Faced by the Homeless Persons in the Southern Valleys.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 19.—The flood situation shows no sign of improvement today, the most serious development being the discovery that the dike which protects the upper east end of the city is weakening slightly. Repairs are being made and men are patrolling the banks. No fear of a break is expected. The crest of the flood is not expected before Monday.

The Ohio has continued rising during the past 24 hours throughout its length, but is falling in upper tributaries. The rate of rise has also decreased. The river will rise steadily at Madison, Ind., and Louisville for the next several days and will reach a stage of 36 feet at Louisville and 54 feet at Madison Sunday, with a still further rise Monday.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 19.—There was no sign of relief from the flood conditions today. At 8 o'clock this morning the stage at this point was 52 feet, the water having passed the highest records since that of February, 1883, during the night. For a distance of four squares from the normal water front the lower portion of the city is flooded. The bridges are cut off from the land except for narrow foot passages, leaving the railroad bridges the only means of communication for foot passengers between the Kentucky side and this city. This afflicts several thousand people who work in Cincinnati and whose homes are in Newport, Covington and other Kentucky suburbs.

The town of California, just above the city, is reported completely under water.

In Newport it is estimated there are nearly 100 blocks under water and that fully 5000 people are homeless and almost destitute. All stores have been closed and are being used to house the homeless. Free soup houses were opened here today.

PASSENGERS BURN TO DEATH

Immediately following the crash the wreckage caught fire and the bodies were burned before they could be extricated from the ruins. The heat of the burning cars was so intense that the would-be rescuers could not get near enough to help.

One man who was pleading piteously for aid was pinned under a car seat. He was rescued when the flames were within six feet of him. Another man was thrown out of the window of the smoker into a ditch. These were the only two passengers rescued from the smoker.

The killed included men, women and children, and all that could be seen at daybreak this morning was the smoldering skeletons of human bodies and the wreckage of the smoker and baggage cars. None of the passengers in the sleeper were killed. Coroner Comley has taken charge and Prosecuting Attorney Hall will assist the coroner's jury in making an investigation of the wreck.

TELESCOPED COACHES AFLAME! SCORES HURT

People Roasted Alive in Catastrophe on Big Four Road in the State of Indiana.

KANKAKEE, Ill., Jan. 19.—Twenty persons are believed to have been killed or burned to death in the wreck of a passenger train, eastbound, at Fowler, Ind., at 2 o'clock this morning.

The wreck occurred on the Big Four road, the passenger train running into a freight train. The cause of the collision is said to be that the engineer on the passenger train failed to see the block signals.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Fire followed the collision, adding horror to the wreck, and it is believed that more passengers were burned to death than were killed by the collision.

There were twenty-five persons in the combination day coach and baggage car, and only five of them escaped alive.

The passenger train consisted of three Pullmans, the private car of Vice-President Schaff of the Big Four, and a combination day and baggage coach.

Some of the injured passengers in the Pullmans and private car were injured, but none killed. None of the freight crew was injured.

IN PRIVATE CAR.

Some of the injured passengers were brought here in the private car.

Mrs. Schaff, who had been visiting in Chicago, was in the private car on her way to Cincinnati, and she had some of the wounded taken on board and brought here, assisting in caring for them.

The number of injured is said to be about forty. Three of those brought here are not expected to live.

KANKAKEE, Ill., Jan. 19.—Seven survivors of the Big Four wreck at Fowler were brought here in the private car of Vice-President Schaff this afternoon.

The private car was the only one on the train that was not burned. It was said that possibly twenty-five persons were burned in the wreck. Only five are said to have been rescued.

The conductor and baggage-master of the passenger are missing.

FUNDS IN BANKS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The statement of the clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks had $18,490,799 more than the legal requirements. This is an increase of $9,320,000 as compared with last week.

M. T. MINNEY HAS FAITH IN OAKLAND

M. T. Minney is one of the most successful real estate dealers in Oakland, and the organizer of the M. T. Minney Investment Company, capitalized at $2,000,000, which was formed to buy, sell and improve real estate, principally in the downtown district. As its name implies, the M. T. Minney Investment Company is a purely investment concern and will not transact a brokerage business. Its main object is to buy, improve and hold property for investment purposes on the co-operation plan permitted by joint stock.

Mr. Minney is a firm believer in intelligent advertising, and is one of the biggest advertisers on this side of the bay. The phenomenal success he has achieved is a tribute to his business sagacity and his judgment as an advertiser. He has profound faith in the future of Oakland, which he regards as presenting a field for unlimited development and a most inviting theater for real estate operations.

"I regard the present level of real estate prices below actual value," said Mr. Minney. "This conclusion is drawn from a comparison of the prices prevailing here with the prices which prevail in other cities of the same class. There has been a rapid advance in values here during the last six months, but I look for a much more rapid increase in values during the next six months."

"Hitherto property values have been based on the assumption that Oakland was purely a residence city. She has developed at a bound into a commercial and maritime center—she has for years been making steady progress as a manufacturing city. There has been an enormous increase in the permanent population recently, and this increase continues in advance of the building activity, which is unprecedented. The advance in rents and values is based upon earning capacity. Tradesmen reap much larger profits at the rents now prevailing than they did when rents were far lower. The demand for business accommodations, tenements and residences is far in excess of the supply. Hence the coming year will witness an unexampled building activity, due to tremendous growth and development in the district of which Oakland is the financial and business center. I do not see how prices can retrograde below their present level, but can discern many substantial reasons why they will advance and remain firm in the future."

"I believe advertising to be the key to success, but it does not pay to advertise in the wrong way or poor mediums. The secret of advertising is to tell the public precisely what you have to sell and why it is cheap at the price asked. In other words, the advertiser must give straight business to the people whose patronage he invites. I make it a rule in my advertisements to accurately describe the character and location of the property I offer for sale, and to state the actual selling price as nearly as possible. I find it pays to be frank, fair and above-board in such matters. I follow the example of the merchants who advertise the quality and character of the goods they have to sell and the prices at which they are offered. The advertiser who puts thought and business method into his advertising finds the money spent that way the surest and most profitable investment he can make."

Mr. Minney has just closed an exclusive contract for a page in THE TRIBUNE for a whole year. This is the largest exclusive advertising contract ever made in either Oakland or San Francisco, and proves not only Mr. Minney's faith in Oakland and advertising but his high appreciation of THE TRIBUNE as an advertising medium.

REPORTS THEFT OF HORSE AND BUGGY

Another horse and buggy, the property of J. F. Mulqueeny, of Twenty-eighth street and San Pablo avenue, was stolen yesterday from the corner of Twelfth street and Broadway. Mulqueeny has notified the police of the theft. He believes that the horse and vehicle were driven away by small boys. Mulqueeny has reported many similar thefts, the missing rigs being found in various places about town several hours afterward.

ADMITS HE WAS EASY MARK FOR BUNCO MEN

"I have not been trying to avoid being a witness in the case I have begun against De Luca," said B. Mancina, the Nevada miner, who was released $2400 in an Emeryville saloon several days ago, in a talk with newspaper men in the corridor of the courthouse this morning. "I have been around here for the last two days, and yesterday I was sitting for quite a while in one of the court rooms. The sheriff had the address of my stopping place on Seventh street between Washington and Clay, but the landlady probably did not know of my whereabouts, which was the cause of the statements that I had been bought over by the bunco men."

THREE NEW BANKS ARE ORGANIZED IN OAKLAND

Oakland as a financial center is demonstrated in the fact that articles of incorporation for three new banks were filed this morning with the county clerk. The incorporators of the new concerns are E. H. Adams, E. A. Essig and M. O'Brien.

The enterprises are the Oakland Commercial Bank, Oakland Mercantile Bank and the Oakland German Bank.

The capital stock of each is $25,000, which is totally subscribed in the Oakland German Bank, where J. E. Adams, of Berkeley, holds $15,000 while the two Oakland investors have subscribed $5000 each. In the other two branches, Adams has $1000 in each, and Essig and O'Brien hold stock to the value of $1000 apiece in each concern.

The principal place of business will be in this city for a term of fifty years.

LEAVES DAUGHTER'S BIER TO GO TO HIS OWN DEATH

While returning to his duties in Ogden, Utah, after attending the last sad rites over his little deceased daughter in this city, Charles A. Schuyler, sustained fatal injuries in a train wreck at Verdi, Nevada, and passed away Sunday in Ogden.

Mrs. Schuyler, who resides at 2024 Brook street, in this city, hurried to Ogden as soon as she heard of her husband's condition and is now on her way home with the remains. Mrs. Schuyler will arrive here tomorrow, and the funeral will be held Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Schuyler was in the mail service, holding a responsible position in Ogden. He was a native of New York, forty-four years of age. When he learned of his daughter's sudden death, he came to Oakland at once, to mourn at the little one's bier. He then started back to Ogden, and was injured in the wreck.

DR. E. H. WOOLSEY IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Dr. E. H. Woolsey is seriously ill with pneumonia in his rooms at the Metropole Hotel.

JORDAN MAKES REPLY IN JAP CONTROVERSY

Issues Signed Statement in Relation to Attack by San Francisco Board of Education.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—In a signed statement issued this morning President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University replied to the attack made upon him yesterday by members of the local Board of Education for his remarks on the Japanese school question.

President Jordan, speaking at a banquet in this city, declared that the affairs with Japan would be settled in a gentlemanly way and by gentlemen, rather than from within "the shadow of the State prison," and for that utterance was sharply criticized by the local school directors. Here is Dr. Jordan's latest statement:

"In the language to which the school board takes exception I did not refer to the school board. The members of the board are hardly factors in the national policy of the United States. The school incident is a minor matter except that it involves the settlement of certain questions as to the conflict of laws, national obligations and states' rights. These matters are for the courts to settle. The only essential point is that the immigration of Japanese laborers, which most of us deplore, can be honorably and legally checked in but one way—that of friendly co-operation with the government of Japan."

WAREHOUSE FIRM IS INCORPORATED

Articles of incorporation for the Berkeley Dock and Warehouse Company were filed this morning. The company is incorporated for a term of fifty years with its headquarters in Berkeley. Of the capital stock, $300,000, the directors, E. F. Brooks, E. L. Brock and F. W. Foss have subscribed $3000.

BRAZILIANS TAKE PART IN REVOLT

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Jan. 18.—A number of Brazilians residing in Paraguay took part in a revolt against the authorities of Santa Rosa. They succeeded in crossing the frontier, but were overtaken by Brazilian troops and dispersed. The Brazilian soldiers pursued some of the fleeing revolutionists into Paraguay, but were forced to withdraw by the Paraguayan authorities.

NO GUARDIAN FOR AGED MAN

Judge Harris Denies Petition in Case of Simon H. Dikeman.

The bitter fight over the guardianship of the Dikeman $100,000 fortune has come to an end, and Judge Harris has denied the petition of H. Waldo Dikeman to have a guardian appointed for his father, Simon H. Dikeman, the Berkeley capitalist.

Shortly after the aged Berkeleyan was found in a dazed condition on the mud flats in West Oakland, last November, H. Waldo Dikeman petitioned the court to have a guardian appointed for his father. This brought forth a legal resistance from the senior Dikeman and his son James, a Los Angeles engineer.

The case was a long drawn out affair, and much testimony was taken to prove the aged man's competency.

Letters were read in court which made sensational accusations against James.

Simon Dikeman is seventy-eight years of age. He accumulated a fortune in the early days in Nevada county as the superintendent and large stockholder in a mining ditch company. He owns valuable Berkeley realty and a large ranch in Nevada county. His estate is valued in excess of $100,000 and is continually increasing in value.

MERCHANTS ARE UP IN ARMS

Increased Rates of Coast Companies Cause Much Dissatisfaction.

All the merchants of San Francisco are up in arms against the increased freight rates which are about to be demanded by the coast navigation companies. Yesterday it was announced that beginning January 15 the tariff for the transportation of all classes of freight between San Francisco, Portland and Astoria, by the water route will be increased from 25 to 25 per cent. In some cases the rate will only be about 5 per cent, while in a very few, according to the statements of local managers, to raise at all will be made.

The steamship companies concerned in the new rates are the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, operating between San Francisco and Puget Sound ports, and the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Company, operating between San Francisco, Portland and Astoria. Before the merger of Southern Pacific and Union Pacific interests in the San Francisco-Portland Steamship line, then a portion of the Union Pacific-Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company's system, a forlorn competition between the two companies had been going on for some time. But the new rates will be in effect from the first of the month, and the Pacific Coast Steamship Company it is said readily agreed to Harmon's suggestion for increased profits.

WARSHIP THREATENS MENACING CONVICTS

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A Kingston, Jamaica, dispatch to the Herald states that the battle ship USS Oregon, which is on duty at the port, is menacing the convicts by firing its guns at the prison. The help was immediately received by the government.

The Herald's correspondent says that the inmates of the prison are at large, but he says in the present state of mind nearly all Kingston is crowded.

Many persons were rendered insane by the shock of the explosion, but the inmates of the prison are at large, but he says in the present state of mind nearly all Kingston is crowded.

AGED PIONEER WOMAN DIES AT MARIPOSA

Mrs. E. A. Mattingly, a pioneer resident of Oakland, aged 90 years, died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. J. A. Wall at Mariposa on January 15. Interment was at Mountain View Cemetery. Three sons and one daughter survive her, J. A. W. T. and E. C. Mattingly and Mrs. W. P. Wand. The sons are prominent business men of Oakland.

The funeral services were held at the home of deceased's granddaughter, Mrs. Winkelman at 2008 Grove street, Oakland, yesterday.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE LAW

In the examination held yesterday before the District Court of Appeals in San Francisco, twenty-one out of thirty-three applicants were successful in passing the examination, and were given the right to practice law in the courts of the State of California. Clerk Haselton gave out the diplomas. Among the new attorneys is Ponciano Reyes, a full blooded Filipino of Berkeley, who passed the examination in a creditable manner. Boutwell Dunlap of Berkeley, a shoemaker by trade, was successful after four tries, from Oakland. Berkeley and Alameda are Bernard Silverstein, Irwin W. Ayers, William J. Hennessey, Eugene Roberts, Burton J. Wyman and J. J. Rose of Oakland; Samuel J. Nunan and J. S. Lamson of Berkeley; Frederick L. Fisher, Alameda.

NEW PLAN TO DIVERT RIVER

Maine Contractor Has Scheme to Save Land From Salton Sea.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Captain Albert F. Eels of Rockport, Maine, who is the contractor building the Diamond Shoal lighthouse off Cape Hatteras, has been in consultation with government officials and also with engineers of the Southern Pacific Railroad concerning a new method which he has proposed to turn the Colorado river back to its old channel and thus save Imperial Valley from the Salton Sea.

The plan which Captain Eels has in mind is to build water gates near the break in the river's bank, which will be connected with sluices to carry the water into the lowlands now being inundated. These gates, he said, should be built to drain the river at a lower level than the break. When they are opened, the water instead of rushing through the break in the river's bank as at present, will flow through the gates. This will make the water in the break more stagnant.

At the present time this process has been rendered futile because the current carries away the waste as fast as it is dumped.

FLAMES ARE STILL RAGING

Franklin Tunnel Is Doomed—Santa Fe Trains Must Use S. P. Tracks.

The flames are still raging in the Franklin tunnel, on the line of the Santa Fe railroad, some miles from Martinez, and all trains are compelled to use the Southern Pacific tracks from Bay Point to San Pablo station. A special train has been sent to San Francisco for the necessary timbers and other material to rebuild the burning supports.

The fire started about midnight Wednesday, shortly after a freight train with an oil-burning locomotive passed through, but was not discovered until late the next morning when train No. 7 from the East approached the tunnel. The engineer, on rounding the curve, saw the flames and stopped his train. An effort was made to extinguish the flames, but they had already become beyond control.

In the train was a private car bearing General Manager A. G. Wells, and Chief Engineer H. C. Phillips of the repair work. A wrecking crew from Glen Frazier was procured, and the officials led them across the hills to the west end of the tunnel, near the first division. They took charge of the repair work. A wrecking crew from Glen Frazier was procured, and the officials led them across the hills to the west end of the tunnel, near the first division. They took charge of the repair work.

There an effort was made to block the end in order to stop the draft, but as no timber was available, nothing much could be done at that time. After hours of hard labor, the workmen succeeded in shutting the entrance with earth and debris. The fire burned for several hours, and the expenditure of thousands of dollars is expected to be required for the work of blocking the ends of the tunnel.

FIRE IN CENTRAL BANK BUILDING

Fire broke out last evening in the Central Bank Building at Fourteenth street and Broadway, as a result of a grate in one of the offices being defective. The prompt response of the fire department to an alarm prevented serious damage.

The fire had its origin in the accounting room of the First Assurance Company of Philadelphia on the fourth floor. Coals had been burned in the grate and were still smoldering when the clerks left at 6 o'clock. The manager, F. M. Avery, left later than usual, and on his way out noticed smoke rising from the fireplace. Thinking it was caused by the grate he left without investigating closely.

The janitor, in cleaning up the rooms an hour afterward, became alarmed and turned in a general alarm. A crowd of several hundred persons soon congregated about the building and police lines were drawn. The firemen tore out the grate, finding that between the floor and the ceiling of the room below a dangerous fire was burning. It was extinguished before it gained headway. The Central Bank Building is fireproof and is well guarded against fire. It would be impossible for fire to make headway in the building.

ORPHAN TELLS PATHETIC TALE

Lad Who Escaped From Foundling Home Shows Cruel Bruises on Head.

Robbie Craven, the ten-year-old boy who ran away from the foundling home of Mrs. Brandes at 1405 Seventeenth street, this city, was picked up in San Francisco at Golden Gate avenue and Webster street, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and taken to the Central Emergency hospital.

The lad states that he ran away because they made him do all the work about the place, and that when he finally refused to do it, they beat him over the head with a club. In support of his story, he showed several ugly bruises on his forehead.

He says that his mother is dead, and that he and his sister Helen, four years old, are kept in the home which is run by Mrs. Brandes. The father is a structural iron worker in this city, and he has been paying the bills for the keeping of the children. Once a week he visited the children, and gave them some small spending money.

The boy said that his sister was also abused by the woman with whom they lived, and that he would never stay with her again. He cried as he told the story, and begged that his father be found and persuaded to take them both from the care of the heartless woman. An effort to locate the father of the boy proved without avail, and he was sent to the Juvenile Home yesterday.

SAYS JORDAN IS IN WRONG

San Francisco Board of Education Attacks Well Known Educator.

"If President David Starr Jordan of the Stanford University is correctly quoted in the daily newspapers, and if he actually made the assertions that the affairs of the San Francisco Board of Education are being directed 'from the shadow of San Quentin Prison,' he has subscribed to a living lie which can but redound to his discredit, and which stamps him as a man wholly unfit to occupy the high position with which he has been honored by the trustees of an independent estate."

From an official statement of the Board of Education.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—The members of the San Francisco School Board were in a fighting mood yesterday. The board, President Jordan at the annual dinner of the Unitarian Club Thursday evening, at which the Stanford professor expressed his plain views on the Japanese school question and of the San Francisco Board of Education, had accused the members of that body to explanations and picturesque epithets. Here is another paragraph from the official denunciation of Stanford's executive head.

"President Jordan, if it is correct, knows that he is in the wrong. Even the Japanese Government, which aids in him such an active champion, does not make the claims of the charges which are presented from this mailed educator. The Board of Education simply submits to the people these facts: That the contentions of President Jordan are unfounded in truth; that the will of the people has been interpreted, and that, to say the least, there is nothing inspiring to be found in the logic of a man who drags his gown of learning in the political mire, and hurl epithets at men who may, from any standpoint, that he will select, prove to be his peers."

President Walsh of the School Board, in a supplementary statement yesterday afternoon, heaps abuse on President Jordan, at considerable length, among other things he says: "The president of this Board will not undertake to engage in an exchange of billingsgate or fish-wife denunciations with President Jordan, because in this particular respect the board president stands easily premier on this coast. In this line he is easily recognized without a peer. I will, however, undertake to remind Professor Jordan of the Scriptural injunction, 'Thou shalt not curse thy neighbor.' I respectfully challenge Professor Jordan to point to one scintilla of evidence against the present Board of Education that would give the slightest countenance to his unfounded charges. If the president of Stanford University can produce the shadow of a shade of any evidence that would incite this Board I would be glad to offer a liberal amount of money, the sum to be distributed among the trustees of this city. If he cannot do so, the president of this great university, who is supposed to be an exemplar to thousands of young men, must stand before the world a self-confessed calumniator."

President Jordan, when seen at Stanford University last evening, said: "I do not know what the School Board means by reference to a living lie. I do not believe that any man, of the so-called school question, is necessary to the life of the Japanese children because they are Japanese. It may be that the action of the Board is legal, in which case it may stand. That is for the courts to try."

"I do not believe that any Japanese common laborers are wanted in California, but I know of but one way to reach the desired result, and that is by a friendly agreement, and that is the whole school question with Japan. A friendly agreement, except in so far as the question of national duty as against State's rights is involved."

WILLIAMS COMPANY IS INCORPORATED

Articles of incorporation of the Harry G. Williams Company were filed yesterday. Harry G. Williams, a well-known Oakland coal dealer, Everett G. Williams and Abe P. Leach are the incorporators. The capital stock of the corporation is $50,000, of which $300 has been subscribed.

PITMAN-RUSS THE NAME OF COMPANY

Articles of incorporation of the Pitman-Russ Company, Inc. were filed with the county clerk yesterday. The incorporators are Frank H. Pitman and John J. Patton of Berkeley; G. G. Russ and George L. Russ of Oakland, and August C. Mills of San Francisco. The capital stock is $10,000, of which $600 has been paid in.

JUDGE PORTER PASSES AWAY

Well Known Pioneer of California Dead at His Home in Santa Rosa.

SANTA ROSA, Jan. 19.—Judge William W. Porter, one of Santa Rosa's earliest pioneers, well known throughout the State, died at his home here Thursday evening at 10 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks.

Coming to California in 1852, Judge Porter turned his attention first to mining and then to the law. He was District Attorney of San Joaquin county, and Judge of the Court of Sessions of Calaveras county before the war, at the breaking out of which he returned and fought valiantly for the South. He was a captain on the staff of General Crittenden and General Johnson, and engaged in many battles.

He took up the practice of law in Jackson, Miss., at the close of the war, and was married there in 1856, his devoted wife surviving him. He came to California for the second time in 1872 and engaged in the practice of his profession. During Grover Cleveland's first term he appointed Judge Porter a Supreme Justice for the Territory of Arizona, and when his term expired he came back to Santa Rosa to spend his remaining days. Besides his widow, he leaves five daughters, Mrs. Fred Seabury, now en route to the United States from Tahiti; Mrs. Alice Porter Ware of Baltimore, the Misses Bessie Porter and Anna Marie Porter of Santa Rosa, and Miss Hallie Porter of Berkeley.

Clever Business Men

have long ago shown the poor policy of indifference to dress, and custom demands only a difference in style between business and dress clothes. No man is over fastidious because he requires a made-to-measure business suit. He is merely a wide awake, energetic man of affairs and appreciates fully that he is a gentleman and wants to look fit.

PIANOLAS AND PIANOLA-PIANOS

DON'T forget this important fact—that there is only one PIANOLA and that one is made by the largest musical instrument manufacturing company in the world, namely the Aeolian Company, of New York.

It has a capital of ten million and controls nearly a score of factories turning out a finished product as faultless and perfect as the world's most skillful artisans can achieve. When the Company gave to the musical world the PIANOLA it was supposed man's ingenuity could go no farther; but first the Metrostyle, and now the Thermoist have been added, making the PIANOLA almost human in its interpretation of the works of the great masters.

Again, don't forget that there is only one PIANOLA recognized the world over as a genuine player, above and beyond all imitations; and don't forget that the sole agents here are

BOGUS CHECK FOR $62 IS PASSED IN BERKELEY

Mercer-Hodgson Co. the Victim of a Swindler, Who Is Thought to Be Expert in Line.

BERKELEY, Jan. 19.—A bogus check operator has once more appeared in Berkeley. Yesterday a man who gave his name as Joseph Martin passed on the firm of Mercer-Hodgson Co., of 1422 University avenue, a check for $62, drawn on the First National Bank of Berkeley, in exchange for 4000 shingles, which he purchased. A few hours later, Richard Hodgson of the firm found that the check was worthless, and reported the matter to the police.

It is believed that Martin is the same individual, who two days ago under the name of John Blake, passed a worthless check on William Hamell, a carriage dealer of Oakland, whose place of business is at Third and Washington street. The amount involved in that instance was $24. Martin is also believed to be identical with the John Cook, who, last September, passed a $65 worthless check on W. L. Dunn of Berkeley.

James McManus' Property Has Been Appraised and Inventory Filed.

The estate of the late James McManus, the well-known undertaker, who died at his home last year, when dressing to go down town to the Elks' parade, has been appraised at $70,979.34. The inventory and appraisal were made by appraisers J. A. Kennedy, J. B. Lunktree and A. J. Snyder was filed this morning. The fortune is composed of real estate, promissory notes, money in the bank and personal property.

It was for the $750 building lot. George E. French, another earnest bidder, made a good score before the close of the contest. A. J. Snyder, the Oakland letter carrier, has not quit the race by any means, and is working very earnestly among his hosts of friends.

WILL STAY IN RACE.
Ralph Gross and Charles Herkenham are still in the race and expect to stay until the end. E. A. Brunt is trying hard for the top offered the Alameda and Berkeley boys, and will not let it pass without an effort to win it.

Henry Jamison of Berkeley, of the popular "Peace" candidates in the county town, is still heading toward the top, and expects to be given in that district.

Charles Becker and Joe Leonard are also making efforts to beat Mr. Jamison in the end.

HUFF STILL AHEAD.
A. P. Huff seems to have things his way in Alameda, as he still heads the list.

A. S. Blunt holds second place and as yet no decided effort is being made to put a higher score than the Berkeley boys as was claimed they would do.

FROM SIXTH TO FIRST.
Mrs. S. Leiser, of the popular women in Oakland, has taken a jump from sixth place to first, showing her activity in the securing of votes.

Mrs. J. D. Hoff and Mr. J. Moore are working earnestly also, and have secured quite a number of subscriptions to the Tribune, which means several hundred votes to them.

LEADS IN BERKELEY.
Mrs. Kelly still leads in Berkeley with Mrs. Loris second.

Mrs. H. Reeves and Mrs. M. A. Yale of Alameda are working hard to catch up with Mrs. Burgess, who is leading a merry chase for the fine sewing machine offered to the most popular woman in the county.

The school teachers are becoming more interested in the trips to Honolulu and the City of Mexico, and as a result decided changes are daily being made in their scores.

MISS WHITEHEAD AHEAD.
Miss R. D. Whitehead leads the list with over 2000 votes and is interesting many friends in her campaign.

Mrs. Mary Ayres assures her friends that she will be in line for the first prize and will start a good, earnest campaign before long.

SAVE YOUR HAIR WITH

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

THE TIME TO SAVE YOUR HAIR IS WHILE YOU HAVE HAIR TO SAVE. NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE KILLS THE GERM THAT CAUSES DANDRUFF, ITCHING SCALP AND FALLING HAIR, AFTER WHICH THE HAIR IS BOUND TO GROW AS NATURE INTENDED (EXCEPT IN CASES OF CRONIC BALDNESS.) HERPICIDE STOPS ITCHING OF SCALP INSTANTLY.

I find that Herpicide will do all you claim for it. I am now on my second bottle and it has cleaned my head nicely and I can see new hair coming in. It also stopped my hair from falling out and I am well pleased with it and will do recommend it to all.

(Signed) R. L. LEIGH.
Hopkinsville, Ky.

I wish to say that I have used part of the bottle of Herpicide that you sent me and I think it is a good tonic and have recommended it to quite a number of my friends. I believe it will cure dandruff and it is a splendid and delightful hair dressing.

(Signed) H. J. FORSDICK.
Memphis, Tenn.

I have given your Herpicide a thorough test. I can cheerfully say that it is the best Hair Tonic I have ever used. It will be one of our household remedies from now on and will surely recommend it to all my friends and acquaintances.

(Signed) PETER PHEL.
Sedalia, Mo.

You very kindly sent me a bottle of your Herpicide and I gladly answer your inquiry as to its qualities. NEWS FROM BERKELEY AND CITY OF ALAMEDA

OFFICER HOME ON FURLOUGH

Lieutenant Martin K. Metcalf in Berkeley as Result of Injuries.

BERKELEY, Jan. 19.—After a long absence, Lieutenant Martin K. Metcalf, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Metcalf of Bushnell Place, is now in Berkeley on sick leave, having been given a month's furlough on account of injuries sustained on the cruiser Cincinnati which encountered exceedingly rough weather between Yokohama and Manila several weeks ago.

Lieutenant Metcalf was intrepidly engaged in directing his men in the face of the storm when he was violently thrown to the deck by a sudden lurch of the vessel. He sustained a severe concussion of the brain, which rendered him practically unconscious for three days. Under skilled medical attendance he has fully recovered and is now resting at the home of his parents in this city.

Lieutenant Metcalf was graduated from the Berkeley High School before he was appointed to the Annapolis Naval Academy. He made a splendid record at the naval school and was graduated with high honors with the class of 1903. A year later he was given the rank of ensign and is now a lieutenant. His promotion to a still higher position is certain to come in the near future, as all the members of his class from the naval school have been advanced with great rapidity.

Lieutenant Metcalf's next assignment will probably be to the cruiser California.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Sarah Olivia Currier, an aunt of Mrs. F. M. French, died at the home of her niece, 2064 Santa Clara avenue, yesterday morning. Mrs. Currier was eighty years of age. MISS LEILA SHIRK.

R. D. BUTLER.

Engagement of Miss Lela Shirk to R. D. Butler, a Prominent Contractor of the College Town, Is Announced.

BERKELEY, Jan. 19.—Public announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Lela Shirk, of 1719 Hearst avenue, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Shirk, and R. D. Butler, a prominent Berkeley contractor.

It was the intention of the couple to keep the secret of their engagement to themselves for some time before announcing it formally. They found it impossible to do, as their friends became aware of the true state of affairs and proceeded to pour congratulations upon them. The wedding date has been set for the early part of April.

Miss Shirk has lived in Berkeley for a number of years and has a host of friends in college and town society circles.

In addition to this sum, there have been donations of food and clothing worth approximately $500, and some given by residents of Oakland, but turned in through Berkeley collectors. Most of the Oakland contributions, however, are separately reported. More collectors are needed in both Oakland and Berkeley. The First National Bank of Berkeley and the University Bank of Berkeley will receive donations at their banking houses, so will the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Oakland. The Oakland Chamber of Commerce, under the leadership of the new chairman, Mr. F. W. Bilger, has taken an interest in the relief work, and each member has constituted himself a collector.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company has promised to transport 4000 tons of supplies to the port of Shanghai. Much greater quantities have already been offered as donations, and it is hoped that more free freightage than that will be given by either the Pacific Mail or some other transportation company. Mr. Clark sent a telegram to President Roosevelt Tuesday, regarding the securing of transportation for supplies, and was referred by the President to the Red Cross Society. No answer to the appeal has yet been received from the Red Cross.

Bills appropriating $250,000 from State funds for relief purposes will be introduced in the Legislature by Senator L. M. Latham and Assemblymen Leavitt and Eschelman.

MAY MAKE A FIGHT FOR THE OFFICE OF CHIEF
M'COY AFTER
VOLLMER'S JOB

Prominent Berkeleyite Willing to Run for Office in Police Department.

BERKELEY, Jan. 19.—Now that the April elections are approaching, considerable interest is being taken in the local political situation. On the second Monday in April trustees will be elected in the odd wards, and school directors in the even wards. All the other town officials will also be elected, including the marshal.

It is in this latter office that the most interest seems to be taken, though there is little likelihood that Marshall Vollmer will be succeeded by anybody else than himself this year. The most likely candidate of the opposition is William H. McCoy, a former member of the Berkeley police force, who comes of a family of officers of the peace. At least a dozen of McCoy's relatives hold positions on the police departments of the State, ranging from patrolman to chief of police.

McCoy has announced that he would be willing to take the non-partisan nomination if it should be offered him, though he practically concedes Vollmer's election.

"I would run even though I were sure of being beaten," said McCoy to a Tribune reporter. "I do not consider that it is the proper thing to elect town officers unanimously."

No diminution in the number of Chicagoans stricken during the last twenty-four hours could be observed by Commissioner Whalen, to whom were reported seventy cases of scarlet fever and seventy-five of diphtheria. The only action taken upon the school question was in the form of an order for the disinfection of thirty-four schools. It is reported that eleven schools have already been fumigated.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 19.—In a communication addressed to the City Trustees, the Oakland Traction Company has signified its willingness to improve its portion of the Webster street roadway. The communication states that it will work a hardship on it to do the work at the present time, but if the Trustees insist, it shall be done.

The communication states that when the roadway is put into good condition it will be impossible to have as good running time on the car line between here and Oakland, as all the traffic of wagons and other vehicles will be on the east side of the road, where the tracks are.

The communication will be acted on at the meeting of the Trustees Monday night.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache. Cure every kidney ill.

W. P. Brown, of 1514 Twenty-sixth street, Sacramento, Cal., says: "The statement I made concerning Doan's Kidney Pills and what they had done for me in the year of 1903, did not half express my high opinion. I have for the remedy today because these few years that have elapsed have doubly confirmed the cure then started and through my personal recommendation, many others have found the same grateful results through using Doan's Kidney Pills. I had an attack of malaria fever which weakened my kidneys and caused severe backache, pain and lameness, as well as disorder and annoyance from the kidney secretions. I was troubled with this way for five years, trying different remedies, but received little benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They went right to the root of the trouble almost from the first and removed every symptom of it. I only consider it a duty to let others know of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Mme. Schumann-Heink Will Entertain an Audience in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, Jan. 19.—On Monday afternoon, December 21, at 2.30, the musical public of this community will be offered an opportunity never yet presented here to listen to a song recital by Madame Schumann-Heink, with orchestral accompaniment. This unequalled contralto has appeared in the city in opera and has repeatedly appeared in song recitals with piano accompaniment, but never before with orchestral accompaniment. The repertoire of Madame Schumann-Heink contains a large number of her best numbers, arias from oratorios and operas and songs of larger style which are not adapted to piano accompaniment and which call forth the best qualities, musically and vocally, of the artist.

Madame Schumann-Heink will be accompanied by the Full University Orchestra under the direction of Dr. J. Fred Wolfe, professor of music in the University of California. According to the predictions of the weather bureau, there is now every likelihood of clear and pleasant weather on Monday. In the unexpected event of inclement weather, the concert will be held in the Harmon gymnasium. The concert will begin promptly at 2.30 p. m.

MOVEMENT FOR GOOD STREETS

Bonding Proposition in Hayward Seems to Meet With General Favor Among Residents.

Hayward will have $100,000 to spend for macadamized streets and other municipal improvements, provided the bond proposition, which will be taken up by the town trustees, matures, and it is probable that the movement will meet with popular favor. The matter was discussed at the meeting of the trustees held last Wednesday, and, although not all present were highly in favor of taking the matter up soon. At their next meeting a petition which is now being prepared will be presented for the trustees to pass upon. The sum of $100,000 will be voted upon and the proposition will be voted upon.

The town is in need of better streets and the citizens consider it an absolute necessity to raise a sufficient fund to make improvements, which will be started as soon as the weather permits. The principal thoroughfares will be paved. On the recommendation of the chief of the Hayward volunteer fire department, William Zambisky, also deputy county clerk, all wooden awnings in Hayward will be removed. The matter was threshed out before the trustees, and a resolution was adopted ordering the immediate removal of all such awnings from the city streets. The fire chief is an active worker for beautifying the municipality of his home town.

GOSSIP FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO WEEKLIES

HART'S SINGULAR VALEDICTORY.

Jerome A. Hart is as much a man as ever flourished a blue pencil or manipulated public opinion, and therefore his relinquishment of the editorial tripod is little short of amazing. He was more sensational in severing his connection with the "Argonaut" than he ever was in maintaining it. The "Argonaut" under his management was one of the most decorous of magazines. It was distinguished for its moderation and equable temperament, qualities of pre-eminent importance. Mr. Hart was never hysterical, but he was often convincing, and it never occurred to me that his pen lacked intrepidity, yet he confesses that one of his reasons for selling his paper is that he differs from President Roosevelt. If I were not convinced of his veracity I should yield to incredulity. But in accepting Mr. Hart's explanation I stand aghast at his scrupulousness, for he conceives it to be his duty either to accept Mr. Roosevelt's usurpation of power or to remain silent. Underlying this conception of duty is a principle that would evoke the rapturous applause of an ethical society, but in the fourth estate it will provoke a smile. Whoever heard of an editor quitting his job for the reason given by Mr. Hart? Never before that I know of has it been suggested that a Republican editor has no right to reprobate a Republican President, who, in his opinion, has been false to Republican principles. Never before have I heard it suggested that the principles of a President are necessarily the principles of his party. As a matter of fact it remains to be seen whether President Roosevelt's principles are the principles of his party, and such indications as are given by Senatorial utterances warrant the prediction that the next Republican convention will repudiate many of Mr. Roosevelt's theories of government. In all the circumstances I should think that so zealous a Republican as Mr. Hart would conceive it to be his duty to keep his tripod warm and endeavor with subtle pen and persuasive logic in which he is fertile, to guide the destinies of his party into safer hands than those to which of late they have been entrusted. But, as the proverb says, the strong man and the waterfall channel their own path. Far be it from me dogmatically to insist that in the higher ethics beyond my ken, there is not justification for Mr. Hart's abandonment of the field he has so long adorned. Peradventure Mr. Hart is a Savonarola of journalism, hinting at the decadence of the profession. Mayhap his valedictory is a thrilling challenge to the easy conscience of a perverted press.

HARRISON CAPTIVATED BY A GRASS-WIDOW.

The engagement of Francis Burton Harrison and Mrs. Mabel Cox which was reported in the dailies early this week has been the subject of rumor in the East for several weeks. Two weeks ago the report was denied by one paper which stated that Mrs. Cox had been divorced from her husband, Dr. Rowland Cox Jr., only two weeks. A writer in the same paper said: "That Mr. Harrison should fall under the hypnotic influence of the languorous, dark-eyed Mrs. Cox is not surprising, since for some years she has divided with Mrs. Alfred Norris the honor of being Brooklyn's greatest beauty, but it is rather astonishing that Mr. Harrison should elect to wed again so soon after the tragic death of Mrs. Harrison, and within a few months after having received over a million and a half dollars outright from her estate which she inherited from her father, Colonel Crocker, of California, and the custody of another million and a half willed to his two children." Mrs. Cox was formerly Mabel Judson. She married Dr. Cox five years ago. One New York writer, in discussing the rumor of the engagement, said: "If ever a woman was devoted to her husband it was the late Mrs. Harrison. Their pretty, wedding, the smartest in the history of Tuxedo, seemed a love-match pure and simple, and the Crockers and Alexanders, relatives of the late Mrs. Harrison, cannot be greatly pleased with the Cox-Harrison matrimonial arrangement, if true, and there is a possibility that it may have its effect upon the young man's future political career. Dr. Cox is a young and popular physician with a large practice. His summer vacation is a vacation in name only, and he is so loyal to his patients that one summer in Maine he made an all-night trip of over fifty miles in a canoe to the bedside of a sick woman. His name came before the public eight years ago when a Miss Colgate of Manchester, N. H., shot and killed herself. Dr. Cox was engaged to her, and it was never quite clear whether the shooting was 'suicide or an accident.' Another Eastern chronicler had this to say: "When Mrs. Harrison was killed in an automobile accident last year, her husband donned mourning of the deepest variety. The story of his rapid recovery from his grief began to circulate when Mrs. Cox was seen displaying a magnificent ruby ring that had belonged to the late Mrs. Harrison and which had been among her most precious possessions."—Town Talk.

SUCH A COINCIDENCE!

Society is not suffering the blight of a common interest. Indeed so diametrically opposed are most vested interests that the hostess has to juggle her guest list with rare diplomacy to keep the atmosphere above frappe point. The semblance of intrigue which is now given to the most commonplace action has banished ennui. Women love the spice of harmless intrigue and the fact that So and So no longer speaks to This or That person only adds zest to gathering them all under one roof and turning on the electric currents. Perhaps the most difficult situation to handle is when Thornwell Mullanley and the Rudolph Spreckels foregather. The popular manager of the United Railways is very attentive to Miss Virginia Joliffe, Mrs. Spreckels' sister, and as I have heretofore intimated there are circumstances that tend to keep Mr. Spreckels and Mr. Mullanley apart. However the Herbert Moffitts are very friendly with the interesting, handsome and popular young railroad magnate, and the other night just as a theater party was being made up with Mr. Mullanley as one of the number, a call was made for the services of Dr. Moffitt, who by the way, is one of the most brilliant and successful of our young medical scientists. His services are very much in demand but on this particular evening it was an odd coincidence that they should be required by none other than Francis J. Heney. Verily we live in a very small community. —Town Talk.

THE NEW EDITOR.

Bereft though the local field of journalism is of one of its most distinguished products, it is pleasant to know that the old "Argonaut" has fallen into safe and sane hands. Mr. Alfred Holman, the new proprietor, is a gentleman and a scholar, a man of the same fine qualities of heart and mind that graced his predecessor. He is an experienced journalist, but not, I hope, an exponent of so hard a gospel as that preached by Mr. Hart in his farewell sermon. He is the fourth editor that the "Argonaut" has had. The paper was founded in 1877 by Frank M. Pixley and the Fred M. Somers who afterward founded "Current Literature." Mr. Hart became managing editor of the paper in 1879 and has been active in the management ever since. —Town Talk.

FORMALITY RESENTED.

The newspaper boys are laughing over an episode in which Van Smythe, a new reporter on the "Call" was one of the chief actors. Smythe is an Englishman and has not been here long enough to become thoroughly acquainted with our customs. He was sent to see Judge Graham the other day and invested the visit with far more ceremony than would be employed by an American reporter. Instead of simply "dropping in" on his honor he went to Bill Kennedy, the bailiff of the court, and handing him his card, said: "Say, my man, will you please take my card to the magistrate." Now it may be that the bluff Bill resented the "my man," or it is possible that he was foggy as to what a magistrate is. At any rate he took offense and consigned the Englishman to a region far warmer than his own London. Smythe thinks that our courts totally lack dignity and the other reporters are disposed to laugh at his attitude. For my part, I think that Smythe is entirely right. There is far too much informality among our judges, and they allow familiarities that an occupant of the bench should not tolerate. As a consequence, the judiciary receives little respect—as much, though, as it demands. I remember that many years ago Judge Campbell, who received much notoriety through the broad witticisms he delivered from the bench, had a girl arrested for shouting "Hello Judge" to him as he passed along the street. She was some trull who had been before him for vagrancy and who on such occasions was the subject of his witticisms. She did not suspect him of having any dignity and consequently saw nothing wrong about her public salutation of him. And, considering the circumstances, neither should I. Undignified judges cannot complain of lack of respect when their attitude does not inspire it.—Town Talk.

OAKLAND'S TRADE WORTH WHILE.

Ever since the fire San Francisco and Oakland have been entering into closer commercial relationship, and from present indications it will not be long before the two communities will be very much of the same temperament. It is one thing for a city to achieve metropolitan proportions and quite another for it to divorce itself from its village conscience and parochial complexion. Los Angeles illustrates my meaning in that it has grown without becoming in spirit and temperament anything more than a big, prosperous, thriving, bustling village. It has all the elements of a city save that impalpable quality vaguely described as the metropolitan air, which bears the same relation to communities that style does to women. And that is the thing that Oakland is getting. San Francisco had it before she was as big as Los Angeles and she has been communicating it to the town over the bay along with some of her population. You see it in the cafes and in the stores, and you sense it in the newspapers. San Francisco merchants have discovered that there are good spenders in Oakland and several of them have decided that the trip from Oakland to Van Ness Avenue is more than a customer should be expected to make. So they are going to open stores on the other side of the bay. Roos Brothers, the Emporium, S. N. Wood & Co. and several others are reported to have negotiated for leases along Broadway, and it wouldn't surprise me to hear that some of the Oakland merchants decided to return the compliment by bidding for San Francisco trade. Taft & Penoyer have been getting trade from this city, for many years and could easily cut into the dry-goods business in San Francisco. O'Neill & Embree, the haberdashers, who revealed to Oakland the fact that a man with a high priced scarf is more than half-dressed, intend opening a store in this city, but they are not to be lured away from Oakland. Meanwhile rents along Broadway are on the burning wing, and the financial outlook is so good that the Wells Fargo Nevada National Bank people are talking of opening a branch East of Goat Island.—Town Talk.

A MODEL FOR THE PRIESTHOOD.

Great though the services were that Archbishop Montgomery rendered during his life, it was from his death that this community derived its greatest gain. For Archbishop Montgomery was no ostentatious performer in the vineyard of the Lord. Nor is it within human power to exercise so signal and widespread an influence as that which impresses itself upon a large community when a truly good man by his death stirs such emotions as were given expression by word and action when the soul of the Rev. George Montgomery took flight. His deeds were a continual stimulant and encouragement for those that had the soul to recognize their worth; they were lights that illumined the moral atmosphere around them, but they had not the penetrating power with which they were endowed by the hand of death. Archbishop Montgomery was known to many who had not the good fortune to closely observe his conduct and discern his motives, as an ordinary clergyman; by the few he was recognized as a representative of that class of men from which flows the true life blood of the nation. Most inspiring is the effect of the death of such a man, for nothing could be more salutary than the plunging of a whole community into mourning for one who leaves behind the example of a stainless life, of a great, honest, pure and noble character, a model for all clergymen to form themselves by. Many clergymen affirmed the nobility of Archbishop Montgomery's character, but it was reserved for Bishop Conaty to dwell upon the most beautiful traits of his nature. "He was a minister of the peace of God," said Bishop Conaty; "he never allowed the bitterness of controversy to alienate friendship or increase the difficulties of truth. His faith in human nature never diminished. There was no meanness nor pettiness in his character. His word was cheer and joy to all who heard it." Bishop Conaty might truthfully have added: "He did not believe in censure or condemnation, but in the persuasiveness of example. He never stigmatized men for their imperfections of character, for he recognized the frailty of all, and he realized that the obligations of the priesthood were deeper and greater than those of the laity. With him freedom from wrathful sentiment was not the result of discipline. It was the spontaneous fruit of a generous nature."—Town Talk.

A RUMORED ENGAGEMENT.

Softly rippling over the waves that splash between us and Oakland comes the news that the announcement of an engagement may be expected any day. When it comes it will arouse more interest than is ordinarily evoked by bulletins of similar import from Cupid's court. For the news that is promised in this instance will engage the attention not only of society, but also of the financial world, the gentleman to be felicitated being none other than Mr. Frank M. Smith, the borax king and the wizard whose magic wand has transmuted many a doubtful substance into the stuff that glistens and is gold. Partly through a desire to fillip the curiosity of my readers, and mainly because I am reluctant, despite the softness of the impeachment, to ascribe without authority matrimonial intentions to a lady, I will refrain from putting the name of the rumored fiancée of the distinguished Oakland millionaire into print. Suffice it that she is a very sweet and cultured young woman, well qualified in every respect to impart dignity and grace to the artistic home of Oakland's foremost citizen. Last week Mrs. Frank C. Havens gave a delightful dinner in honor of Mr. Smith, the pretext being, so it was said, his impending departure on a pleasure trip to the West Indies. I half suspect that it was also in honor of the bride-to-be, for she was among those present. Why the engagement was not then and there announced I know not, but I am told it will not be long delayed. Nay, it may precede the appearance of this paragraph—for it is only Monday, and many things may happen before the end of the week.—Town Talk.

PAYING ALIMONY.

An Oakland man is paying alimony to three women who have had the distinction of marrying and then divorcing him. He says that the strain is too much, and asks for relief. The humors of our somewhat complicated divorce system are a little exhausting, but there is no reason why an energetic and erratic young man should not be paying alimony to six women on a moderate computation. The superiority of the present system would have been obvious to Henry VIII, who would thus have been relieved from the necessity of an executioner to resolve his matrimonial problems. Under the modern system, we have an execution in lieu of an executioner.—News Letter.

OAKLAND IS GROWING.

Oakland is fast growing into a Western city of the first magnitude. Last week its streets were the scene of a tong war which would have done credit to San Francisco's palmiest days. The joke of the affair is, that two prominent Oakland clergymen had reported confidently the day before that there were no Chinese female slaves in Oakland. They had investigated, and been told that such was the case. Hardly was their report in, when a bloody fight took place over the possession of one of the slaves, for whose absence the clergymen had vouched. Moral.—Parsons make poor detectives.—News Letter.

PETER'S GOOD LUCK.

Charles Rollo Peters is receiving the congratulations of his hosts of friends on his recent inheritance. It is said to be a goodly fortune, which, after years of litigation, he can now call his own. Mr. Peters is a grandson of the famous De Witt Clinton of New York, and it is from this celebrated ancestor that he has inherited his present estate. For years the Clinton fortune has been tied up in the New York courts, and the California artist had lost all hope of ever spending his grandsire's ducats. Joe Redding undertook to attend to the matter for him, and so successful has Mr. Redding been that at last the case is settled and Mr. Peters is in full possession of a tidy sum. It is a windfall for the clever artist, who, while he can sell his pictures for good prices, cannot keep the money, they bring very long.

After exhibiting his pictures at the Lotus Club, New York, Mr. Peters will go to Europe to remain there for some years.—Wasp.

MAY SUE FOR DAMAGES.

The widow of George P. Young, the wealthy Alameda contractor who was killed in an automobile accident in East Oakland on New Year's morning, is to bring suit for $25,000 against the construction company that was repairing the streets and left them in such a condition that Young's machine, going into a partly repaired bit of street, swerved and ran in front of the street car. There are said to be plenty of witnesses, who will testify that for night after night the street was left torn up, without any lights being put out to warn the public. There was a newspaper story at the time that Young was racing with a street car. This is not true. He was going at a good clip, and was aiming to turn in ahead of the street car. The excavation threw the machine on the tracks before it had gone far enough past the car for safety.—News Letter.

GOOD STORY ON SLOSS.

Louis Sloss is telling a good story on himself these days. Although for a time the matter was so sore a subject with him that it was no matter for a josh. It all harks back, as everything does, to the April disaster. Mr. Sloss, always an admirer of art and a liberal patron of California artists, had a splendid collection of pictures in the gallery of his mother's handsome home on Van Ness avenue. Some forty big and little canvases, all gems, hung in the house, and when the fire seemed destined to sweep Van Ness, Mr. Sloss decided to save his treasures at any cost, so with his own hands he took down the canvases and carried them all across the avenue. Then he set out to find an expressman. Locating one, he asked him to name his price to carry the pictures to a place of safety. Glibly the man replied that for $500 he would do the job. Mr. Sloss gasped as he pulled from his pocket all the cash he had on hand, amounting to about $200. But the pictures must be saved. "Here, take this," said the multimillionaire, "it's every cent I have with me, but I'll give you my check for the other $300." "Aw, go on," the representative of the working classes replied, "I guess your check ain't no better than any one else's," and he drove off.

The pictures burned. Not until they had been reduced to ashes did their owner realize that he could have cut them from their frames and saved the works of art and also his humbled pride.—Wasp.

MISS DEAN TO WED.

The report comes from New York that the beautiful Miss Helen Dean is to be married before long. Miss Dean is the daughter of Mr. W. E. Dean, the San Francisco multi-millionaire, who was one of the projectors of the Ocean Shore Railroad and was a large holder of valuable city property before the fire. Mr. Dean was hit heavily by the great disaster of April last, but is still a very rich man, so Miss Helen is a great heiress as well as a great beauty. She has been living at the Waldorf-Astoria for a year past since her return from Europe, where she was much admired. Rumor connected the name of the famous aeronaut, Santos Dumont, with her list of suitors, and it was said that the heiress was not altogether deaf to his entreaties. Nothing came of the acquaintance, however, and Miss Dean returned to America, seemingly heartwhole and lovelier than ever. After a brief stay in California she took up her residence at the Waldorf-Astoria with her father and mother, but Mr. Dean's many business interests soon drew him back to this city. The ladies remained in New York and lived in a style according with their wealth and social position. Their apartments were of the finest and the elegance of their mode of life greatly impressed all their Californian friends who called upon them. After the earthquake and fire Mrs. Dean hurried back to this city temporarily, but Miss Dean remained at the Waldorf-Astoria. Few San Francisco girls have been more admired than this handsome heiress, and the news of her approaching marriage to an Eastern man will be anything but glad tidings to several native sons of the Golden West, who had dreams of winning her.—Wasp.

THREE OF A KIND.

It was a happy coincidence that Siemsen and Dabner, the gaspiper murderers, and Leon Soeder, who butchered his German brother-in-law to obtain his insurance, were all in Judge Cook's court one day this week. It would be a still happier coincidence if these three most infamous scoundrels could be all on the gallows together next week. The fellow, Soeder, has been two years juggling with Justice and making a mockery of the law, although there is no doubt of his guilt and the crime he committed could not be exceeded in cold-blooded villainy. He induced his poor, ignorant and trusting brother-in-law to sell out his little business in Germany, leave his wife and children and come to California to be slaughtered like a sheep.

After Soeder had insured his relative's life he took the unfortunate man to a lonely spot on Russian Hill and cut his throat. Could anything more completely atrocious be found in the records of crime? Yet for years the malefactor who perpetrated such a fiendish crime has held off the avenging hand of Justice by the interposition of legal technicalities. It is not unlikely that the gaspiper assassins, cowardly and cold-blooded murderers of the same kidney as Soeder will also make a travesty of our laws, that are supposed to protect honest men and punish the guilty, but which have come to be the safeguard of thieves and murderers by reason of the misguiding reverence of courts of appeal for petty legal technicalities.—Wasp.

LILLIPUT BRIDEGROOM GETS A CHILD WIFE

Man Forty-Six Inches in Height Marries Girl of but Sixteen Summers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Two children, one in size and the other in age, were married last night at 504 New Market street, when Joseph Zaino, a 28-year-old Lilliputian, was joined in wedlock to Mary Elsie Wilson, a 16-year-old lass.

The two most concerned stood before the Rev. N. D. Aspinwall of Riverport, N. J., who performed the ceremony, the forty-four inches of the bridegroom were in striking contrast to the fifty-nine inches of the bride. And the bride has still several years in which to attain more inches, while Zaino, at 23, has reached his limit.

The diminutive bridegroom was attended by his six-foot brother, Tony Zaino, who came from Boston with his mother to attend the ceremony. Miss Mamie Dausser, a girl friend of the bride, acted as bridesmaid.

In the absence of a competent musician, a graphophone played the wedding march, in addition to slow music before the ceremony, while Charles Laipin and Prince Otto, two of the Lilliputian friends of the bridegroom, ushered the guests, who towered feet above them, to chairs in the parlor.

Zaino and his girl-bride met in a Market-street department store, while he was doing stunts in magic and she was attending the toy counter. When opportunity offered, Mary Elsie would hie to the auditorium to gaze with admiring eyes upon the child-man. These admiring glances caught the eye of Zaino, and soon he was stopping at the toy counter on his journey through the store. Admiration ripened into love, and culminated in the marriage last night.

CHILD GAVE LIFE TO SAVE BIRD FROM CAT

Girl Injured by Nail While Protecting a Pigeon Dies of Lockjaw.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—While trying to save one of her pet pigeons from a cat, little Marguerite Brinkman, of No. 23 Nineteenth street, Weehawken, received injuries which resulted in her death from lockjaw.

Marguerite, who was eight years old, had half a dozen feathered pets, of which she was very fond. It was her custom to run home from school to feed them, and her ways were so gentle the pigeons would eat from her hand.

Last Tuesday afternoon she went to feed them as usual, but one of the pets failed to come at her call. She looked about the loft and saw the missing one in the clutches of a cat.

The child mounted a box and fought the cat away, but stumbled in doing so and fell, cutting her upper lip on a rusty nail. Despite the best efforts of physicians, the disease could not be stayed.

The dead child was the daughter of John Brinkman, a railroad man.

TEN ANIMALS ARE DINED BY A SOCIETY WOMAN

Mrs. Minnie Fisk Griffin, of Chicago, Serves a Separate Menu for Each of Her Pets.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Animals ten of them, and each had in by a member of the exclusive set, sat at the dinner table of Mrs. Minnie Fisk Griffin in her Evanston home recently.

On account of the impossibility of pleasing all the "guests" with the usual fare, each of the animals had a separate menu.

A little white, pink-nosed pig dined sumptuously off asparagus tips, while a chameleon, which alternately blushed and turned green with envy at every remark made by the parrot gorged itself with bottled flies from Florida.

A guinea pig, wearing brown and white furs, and said to be the champion multiplier of the guinea pig family, disputed the honors of the feast with a pouter pigeon, which got all puffed on its bill and completely ignored the parrot, which, on account of its conversational ability was made toastmaster.

The parrot proposed itself for the position, and, on the ground that stillness was consent, took it for granted that its fellow-guests agreed.

The Boston terrier was seated at the other end of the table from the Angora cat. The bulldog was so homely that every one said he was a veritable Adonis, but the cat got angry at the attentions paid to him and scratched his name off her visiting list. Many of the guests looked askance at the squirrel, which was regarded as a sort of social climber.

WIFE DECLINES SOFT WORDS AS ALIMONY

She Says Her Husband Must Pay $3930 in Hard Money or Go to Jail.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—"Never again will I relent when my husband pleads for time to pay his alimony," said Mrs. Bertha Gross to Supreme Court Justice Davis yesterday.

Mrs. Gross says her husband, Augustus, a wealthy art dealer, owes her $3930, which Judge Truxaw awarded when he gave her a separation in January, 1904.

"Right away," said the indignant woman, "he began to go into arrears, though he knows that nothing but that

FASHION NOTES.

It is an easy task to make a fancy separate waist at home if one has some lace from four to eight inches wide, which perhaps has done duty as a trimming for a gown where it did not receive much wear. A foundation of silk is fitted to the figure. It can then be put on a form and covered with the lace. It is preferable, of course, first to cover the silk with the chiffon. If one has any old white chiffon veils which are slightly pulled apart and not fresh enough to wear, they can easily be cleaned and used for interlining a lace waist.

$7.98 is the price of a brown messaline silk waist, the yoke of brown lace, and beneath an open-work floral design of the silk laid over white chiffon.

Four-in-hand ties of good quality silk with embroidered ends are 75 cents.

Nested blocks, the sort that amuse very young children, are 10 cents in one shop.

For a man there is a Mexican carved leather purse that may be bought for $1.

Desirable colors and lengths in chiffon veils, with hemstitched edges, may be had for $1.50.

GROVE L. JOHNSON ADVISED BY AN OAKLAND WOMAN TO TAKE AN "OSLER PILL"

GAMBLING BILL CREATES A TEMPEST

LET THEM PLAY BRIDGE EVEN IF THEY LOSE A BIT.

Then Their Husbands Will Know Where They Are, Says Writer.

BY MARY B. SEYMOUR.

A tempest in a teapot has been created among the idle rich by the gambling bill that Hon. Grove L. Johnson has introduced in the Legislature. What's the matter with the honorable gentleman? It is time for him to take an "Osler" pill. Are there not laws enough already on the statute books relating to gambling?

COMES HOME SOBER.

When the husband and wife are sweating blood amid the fierce competition of business and social requirements in this beautiful age to keep their end up, what in all conscience does the paltry sum of a few hundred dollars that the wife may lose on "bridge" amount to anyway?

Mary B. Seymour of Oakland takes exception to the bill presented to the Legislature at Sacramento by Grove L. Johnson, wherein it is proposed to prevent the playing of bridge whist and she has written her views of the subject for the Woman's Page of THE TRIBUNE. Incidentally she offers up a prayer for the venerable lawmaker, after advising that he either recall his measure or take himself away via the Osler route.

The husband at least knows where his wife is, and that she will come home sober—perhaps—withstanding Rev. Morgan Dix says booze often gets the best of many at bridge entertainments.

LET HER PLAY.

Who among all women needs the pity and prayers of every serious minded person today more than a poor thirty-five-ounce-brain woman that is burdened with riches.

Oh, God, let her play bridge; let her join clubs, let her write essays, let her turn her house (not home) into a furniture store or a dry goods emporium.

Keep her busy, busy.

IT'S A TOSS UP.

Because, because, any settlement worker can tell Mr. Johnson that it is a very thin partition that separates the idle woman from her sister in the brothel.

and that it is a toss up which causes the most of what we call crime—poverty or idleness; and that some of us fear we may contract that nasty habit that they have in the East of swapping wives and husbands.

CALL IT OFF.

No, Hon. Mr. Johnson, call off your bill and turn your attention to matters vastly more important than that require the wisdom of statesmen.

Don't be a trifler and I will breathe this little prayer for you:

PRAYS FOR HIM.

Oh, God, I thank thee for casting my life in this, the wisest period of the world's existence. I thank thee for surrounding me with so many wise male geniuses, who know so much, and are so much wiser than the generations who have preceded them. Nay, who knows so much more than thou thyself, oh God, how to manage females."

UNSQUEEZED WIFE CANNOT BE A LEMON, SAYS COURT

Judge Rules That Estranged Husband Must Be Careful in Addressing His Spouse.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Postal cards bearing the sign of the lemon are hereafter tabooed as a means of communication between an estranged husband and wife. Magistrate Breen set his face against them in the Yorkville Court, when, after paroling Christian Becker, of 101 East Fourth street, in the custody of a probationary officer, he added the injunction: "Don't annoy your wife, unless she sends for you."

When Becker was dragged before the court on the ground of disturbing the peace, the charge was based on a postal card Mrs. Becker had received through the mails. It bore a Happy New Year greeting, which seemed harmless enough but for the presence of the facsimile of a huge lemon and the printed inscription, "This is yours."

Mrs. Becker had left her husband after a four months' married disagreement. She decided that the insult was too great for her forbearance. Magistrate Breen agreed with her.

In court, Becker complained that the honeymoon had been ruined because his wife ran away from him.

"But he was always throwing kisses at the picture of his first wife," answered Mrs. Becker.

According to Becker's story, he married his first wife twenty-one years ago and loved her very much. "I wish I had remained a widower," he sighed. "So do I," was Mrs. Becker's retort.

SHOOTS BROTHER OF HIS FIANCEE AT A WEDDING

Lawyer, Struck by a Relative for Speaking to a Georgia Girl, Fires Revolver.

LA GRANGE, Ga., Jan. 19.—Just after the wedding of Miss Ellie Ridley and Benjamin Swanson, and while the guests were crowding about the pair to tender congratulations, Dr. Frank M. Ridley, Jr., a cousin of the bride, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded by Attorney Harvey Hill, who had come from Atlanta to the wedding.

Following the shooting, Hill walked into the parlor and remarked: "I have shot Frank, and I think I have killed him."

He then walked down town, surrendered to the Sheriff and was placed in jail.

The shooting grew out of the attentions of Hill to Dr. Ridley's sister, Miss Mary. It is said that Hill and Miss Mary Ridley were engaged, in opposition to the wishes of the Ridley family. Some time ago Dr. Ridley, father of Mary, forbade Hill ever to speak to his daughter again.

Mary was at the wedding of her cousin, and she and Hill engaged in conversation. This enraged Dr. Ridley, Jr., who took Hill to the veranda and asked what he meant by speaking to his sister.

Hot words followed, and Ridley knocked Hill down. The latter arose, drew a pistol, and shot the young doctor.

HEADLESS GHOST WAS WRAITH WITH A THIRST

Frightened Four Winsted Girls, but the Constable Arrested It and 11½ Demijohn It Stole.

WINSTED, Conn., Jan. 19.—Four young women burst hysterically into a citizen's house here last night and waited that they had just seen a headless ghost disappear down an alleyway. The ghost, they said, wore white attire and carried a straw-colored demijohn.

They were soothed and escorted home and no more was thought of it until shortly afterward, when a Norfolk man clamored at the front door of Constable Bresnahan that he had been robbed.

"Of what?" asked Bresnahan.

"Of a jug of thundering fine hickory that was sent me from the folks at home. Somebody lifted it off my wagon while I was driving through town."

Taking his dark lantern and his six-shooter, Bresnahan sleuthed into the night. He encountered the ghostly figure at the street corner and trailed it to an alleyway back of the express office.

There he found John Bailey, an Afro-American, superlatively happy, but incapable of resisting arrest. The demijohn was beside Bailey, but a grown lighter. Bailey had on white overalls and jumper.

After he had placed Bailey safely in a crib, Bresnahan went to the homes of four frightened young women and explained to their folks that the village ghost was only a white-clad dark man on a dark night trying to steal some whiskey.

GETS BRIDE AS A TIP ON A PULLMAN DINER

Conductor Finds Glove of Iowa's Prize Beauty and Then Marries the Lady.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 19.—The romance of a photograph, a pair of gloves and a telephone came to a happy culmination in Chicago today when Floyd R. Wilson of that city married Miss Effie Henderson of Rodney, Ia., who the judges at the St. Louis Exposition said was the "handsomest girl in Iowa."

Wilson saw Miss Henderson's photograph at the fair and fell in love with the original, whom he had never expected to see. But fate played into his hands. He was formerly a brakeman on a Milwaukee & St. Paul passenger train. Later he met a Pullman car inspector and was given the position of Pullman dining car conductor.

A year afterward he was making a run to Hot Springs, S. D., when en route the girl of his dreams came into his car for her dinner. Wilson was almost paralyzed with joy, and when the young woman left without taking her gloves, Wilson pounced on them. He did not return them then, but learning from the hotel register at the Springs, where the girl resided, later sent the gloves with a nice little note.

Thanks were posted back. Another letter followed and more. The girl entered the millinery department of a Sioux City store and Wilson's run was happy, changed so he was given a few minutes every other day here. This time was devoted to telephoning Mrs. Henderson. The courtship of three years was successful, as today's ceremony attests.

In cases of headache or facial neuralgia where mustard would be perhaps too severe, a mixture of white of egg and red pepper may be safely used. It will be found quite as effective as the mustard, but it will not blister nor leave unsightly red blotches even on the tender skin. It can safely be applied at the base of the brain for that "headache in the back of the neck."

The event of the opera season so far was the reappearance in this country of Mme. Melba. She appeared as Violetta in "La Traviata," and was accorded a great ovation. This picture shows Mme. THE MEDDLER

LARGE AFFAIR AT HAVENS HOME.

The largest social affair on either side of the bay this week was the elaborately planned reception given by Mrs. Frank C. Havens, in honor of Mrs. Willis Frank Kelly, one of the most interesting brides of the winter.

When the sun shines, a hostess naturally expects a large crowd of guests at her "at home," but it is a great compliment to her, when the skies are lowering, and a downpour of rain may

Mrs. D. A. Heron has spent many months in the delightful country home at Ben Lomond. The Herons are here for the remainder of the winter, and Mrs. Heron received with Mrs. Havens, and she wore a most becoming gown of flowered silk.

Mrs. Challen Parker, one of the most popular brides of the year, looked exceedingly well in a gown of pale blue crepe de chine, yellow roses adding to it a charming touch of color.

Other beautiful gowns in the recepwere Mrs. Harry Farr, Mrs. George Chase and Mrs. Traylor Bell.

The Farris are occupying their own home on Bonita avenue, which the Charles R. Allens have had all summer.

Every one is glad to meet Mrs. Traylor Bell; she has been ill so long that her friends are glad to welcome her back to her old place in the social world.

Among the callers of the afternoon were Miss Grace Sperry and Miss well known in Oakland.

SHORT AND MERRY SEASON.

"A short season and a merry one" seems to be the motto, since Lent is almost here. There are so many entertainments, though not on a large scale, that the season will go down in history as not so dull as might have been expected from existing conditions about the bay. People are going from place to place, and there is really much enthusiasm, and the days are full of dates—luncheons, dinners, teas, and at least three big dances, till the 30th of February comes and ushers in the Lenten days.

SOCIAL CONVENTIONS.

Meanwhile there are social conventions that would make like much easier if they could be observed. They are the little things of life which end by being big things, when their capacity for making other people happy is be expected any moment, for her friends to arrive in large numbers.

And every one seemed to have accepted with real pleasure Mrs. Havens' invitation for her "at home" on Wednesday. People arrived early and stayed so late that six o'clock found many of the guests quite in the midst of things—enjoying themselves so thoroughly that there was no thought of going home. The weather was threatening, and carriages were in great demand, and since we all have to wait for our turn, people arrived long after five o'clock. But though the hour was late, they came just the same, and it was quite seven o'clock before Mrs. Havens could leave her place in the drawing-room, and the last guest had made her adieu.

There were such interesting people to whom one might talk—so much to do—so much to see, when one considers the beautiful pictures, and the beautiful guests, who made in many cases exquisite pictures—so much to listen to with the rare music—that the hours of the "at home" were delightful ones. Since the earthquake there have been few large reunions, and so, on Wednesday, old friends enjoyed the opportunity of meeting each other. There have been weddings, of course, but weddings bring together not the people who know each other for the most part, but relatives of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Havens' guest list included people who knew each other very well, indeed, and all through the spacious rooms one found groups of congenial people who enjoyed the opportunity of an hour together after our many months of earthquake memories.

The Havens' home was a beautiful study in decoration, the scheme in the reception and drawing-rooms carried out in prosperity carnations, and bridesmaid's roses, the great quantities of carnations being arranged in a most charming way.

The music-room was a study in violet, and the sweet fragrance seemed to come from every part of the large

The dining-room was in red; it was simply a gorgeous room, warm, bright, cheerful—superb with poinsettias and splendid red carnations. The table was an unusual holiday study. The centerpiece represented a gorgeous collection of red carnations; the candelabra carried wide red shades, and the great brown roasted turkeys represented one's idea of a bountiful board. And very beautiful refreshments were provided for Mrs. Havens' guests. The chef carved in an artistic fashion, and added a picturesque element to an unusual and most interesting picture.

The guests really appreciated the rare music of the afternoon. A stringed orchestra played appropriate selections, and at intervals well-known artists sang in the music room. Among them was Miss Partington, the well-known contralto, to whom the guests accorded much attention. She sang many selections during the afternoon, among the best of her numbers being Nevin's well known "Rosary." Miss Northrup was the soprano, and her "Spring Song" was greatly appreciated, as were the numbers with the violin obligato.

Mrs. Havens and Mrs. Kelly received the many guests in the artistic drawing-room, which was an admirable setting during the afternoon for an interesting and brilliant picture. There has not been any social function this winter that has brought together so many interesting women, among them beautiful women, most effectively gowned. Mrs. Havens is most original in many ways, with the culture which wide reading brings, and with the wide horizon which one acquires from extended travel and from meeting many people.

She is a hostess so well poised that her guests receive the cordial welcome which is the keynote of true hospitality.

Mrs. Havens was a most sweet and dainty study in a superb gown of white lace, most effectively made, and very becoming to her special style. Mrs. Kelly was also in white. She is a very stunning bride, and on all sides one heard many compliments for her gracious manners, and indeed, the latter are characteristics of the entire Wickson family.

There has rarely been a receiving party in which one saw so many superb gowns, and indeed, Mrs. Frank Havens, Mrs. Wickham Havens and Mrs. Harold Havens make up a trio which would challenge attention anywhere.

Mrs. Wickham Havens wore a superb gown of rare Irish crochet lace, the corsage lighted with superb lavender orchids.

Mrs. Harold Havens wore a unique gown of white chiffon, the skirt and bodice showing original trimming in black velvet.

One of the very gracious women of the receiving party was Mrs. William G. Henshaw. She has been away from Oakland so many years that she had a reception quite on her own account, so many friends taking this opportunity for a few words of welcome.

Mrs. Henshaw wore a handsome Paris gown in tones of the very palest blue, with the corsage finished in rare lace, and the gown set off with superb diamonds.

Miss Allie Grimes, who was also in the receiving party, wore a gown of sheer chiffon, the bodice trimmed in rare lace.

Miss Grimes carries herself in a stunning way, and she knows how to wear her really beautiful clothes.

Mrs. Harry Maxwell, who is Mrs. Havens' sister, and who looks very much like her, was a most charming study in a gown of white, the corsage showing a trimming of rare lace.

Mrs. Edward Engs was also in white, the gown set off with a bertha of rose point lace.

Mrs. Isaac Requa has been ill, and all her friends were glad to greet her; it has been so long since one has seen her in a social way. She was in the receiving party, and in her sweet, respectful way, did much to welcome the guests of her hostess.

Mrs. Requa wore a gown of black net, with black jet spangles.

Mrs. George de Golia wore a most artistic gown in Dresden effects, the corsage of point lace, and the gown set off with rare old-fashioned coral ornaments.

ing party were worn by Mrs. Edward Wickson, Mrs. Henry Rosenfelt, Mrs. Proctor, Mrs. Robert Newell, Mrs. Musser, Mrs. Edgar Dow, Mrs. J. D. Eby, Mrs. Harmon Bell, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. A. P. Coffin, Mrs. John Q. Brown, Mrs. Roland Oliver.

Among the young girls whom Mrs. Havens invited to receive with her were Miss Avis Sterling, Miss Alla Henshaw, Miss Anita Thomson, Miss Bessie Colby, Miss Anita Davis, Miss Janet Coleman, the Misses Wickson and Miss Pemberty.

Miss Avis Sterling, who is spending the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Havens, is one of the most charming of all the debutantes of the winter. She is very young, very pretty, indeed, and very well bred. One hears that she is a very accomplished girl, and that she sings beautifully.

Miss Sterling wore a dainty and very exquisite debutante gown of pink chiffon, beautifully appliqued in white roses.

In the receiving party was to have been Miss Alla Henshaw, but she was ill, and was greatly missed from the attractive bevy of young girls who assisted Mrs. Havens.

Among them was Anita Thomson, who wore one of the artistic gowns of the afternoon, of white chiffon over silk, the bodice appliqued in roses, and red roses in the hair and corsage adding a color tone to the dainty gown.

The Misses Wickson are all stunning girls, and they added much to the efficiency of Mrs. Havens' receiving party.

One saw many gowns well worth sketching among the guests of the afternoon.

Three young matrons who came together were Mrs. Mark Requa, Mrs. Oscar Long and Mrs. George McNear Junior.

Mrs. Mark Requa has gone back to Nevada, but Mrs. Requa and the children are to remain some time at Highlands.

Mrs. Long wore a calling costume, and Mrs. George McNear Junior was one of the most stunning of the guests, in a gown of black velvet, with a wide picture hat, also in tones of black.

Among the young matrons who have recently established homes at Piedmont, who were Mrs. Havens' guests, Evaline Ellis. The family at Arbor Villa are to leave in the near future for New York City, and Mr. F. M. Smith is planning a trip to Bermuda, which is a favorite expedition for New Yorkers this year.

One of the very beautiful guests at the reception was Mrs. Oscar Maurer, who is such a leader in Berkeley's social and artistic circles.

Mrs. Maurer made a very stunning picture in a gown of garnet velvet, with a wide picture hat.

Mrs. Charles Butters was gowned in navy blue velvet, and her picture hat had one of the immense and elaborate plumes affected this winter in New York and Paris.

Mrs. A. L. White was gowned in black velvet with handsome sable furs, and Mrs. Frank L. Brown wore a New York calling gown, and her furs were also of sable.

Mrs. John F. Connors wore an elaborate reception gown of white chiffon broadcloth, trimmed with Irish crochet lace. The costume was set off with an elaborate picture hat in tones of pale pink.

Miss Mollie Connors was gowned in gray silk, with blue fox furs, and one of the most stunning guests of the afternoon was Miss Ethel Moore.

Miss Moore wore a gown of all-over lace, with a long train and a wide, white hat. Miss Moore is planning to go East in a few days, and she will spend a month in Washington, where she will be extensively entertained. But it is safe to say she will not find in the capital city any more interesting "at home" than that given by Mrs. Havens.

Among the guests of the afternoon were Mrs. A. A. Moore, Mrs. W. S. Goodfellow, Mrs. T. L. Barker, Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. P. E. Boone of Berkeley, Mrs. J. Loran Pease, Mrs. George Gross, the Misses Nicholson, Mrs. Standeford, Miss Florence Hush, Miss Simpson, Miss Grace Sanborn, Miss Laura Sanborn, Mrs. J. R. Scupham, Mrs. Felton Taylor, Mrs. Church, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. George McNear Senior, Mrs. Charles Parcells, Mrs. Frederick Stolp, Mrs. Hugh Craig, Miss Jessie Craig, Mrs. Pattiani, Mrs. Joseph Kelley, Mrs. H. C. Capwell, Mrs. John Valentine. The guest list from Berkeley was a very large one, and included many prominent families from that classical town.

Mrs. Havens gave her friends a most enjoyable afternoon, and the "at home" was so perfectly planned in every way that it was one of the very notable social successes of the winter.

BIG HOUSES FOR NETHERSOLE.

Big houses were the rule for every Nethersole night, and dozens of people crossed the bay to see the interesting English actress. The house was sold out every night. One evening Dr. and Mrs. Jack Shiels and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matthieu formed a party. Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Havens and Mr. and Mrs. Engs occupied a box. Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Morse and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schrock were together, and small theater parties dotted the house. Mr. J. W. Phillips entertained several guests. Some handsome gowns were worn.

A SON FOR THE MORANS.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Moran are being showered with congratulations on the birth of a son, their first child. Mrs. Moran was Miss Elsie Marsh, a sister of Mrs. Charles S. Wheeler, and measured up. Our "impoliteness" is the first thing about which a foreigner makes comment when he visits us.

New York is looking itself frankly in the face, and its leading papers are quite seriously considering the question. You read among recent interesting social notes:

"Impolite New York! Rudeness is rampant on its streets. And almost entirely has the art of letter writing died out in New York. Invitations, congratulations, acceptances and regrets—is not the telephone used to attend to all these things? Invitations for dinners come by telephone, a servant takes them, forgets to deliver them, and direful results, sometimes the breaking of even life-long friendships, follow. New Yorkers will soon forget how to write altogether, and it is doubtful if one New Yorker in a hundred knows how to write or indite an old-time courteous letter any more than he or she knows how to dance the minuet.

"What New York professional or business man now considers it necessary to make party and dinner calls? He thinks it is an excuse to say he is a 'busy man,' whereas it is no excuse whatever. If too busy to show after-courtesy to a hostess, a man should be too busy to eat at her table. 'Four men disappointed me at the last moment,' said a New York hostess one night, as she sat down to a table with four vacant seats. Abroad, to disappoint at dinner is a serious offense—indeed, a sin for which there can be no atonement, unless one is kept away by death, illness, disgrace or great misfortune.

"In New York, to telephone a flimsy excuse at half past 6 for a dinner that is to be served at 7 is not considered a social crime.

"Let it be hoped that impolite New

STORMY WEATHER OF THE PAST WEEK DOES NOT DETER OAKLAND

INTRODUCTION OF THE MISSION TYPE IN OAKLAND ARCHITECTURE

New buildings to be erected by James Taylor at the northeast corner of Seventeenth and Jefferson streets. George Clark of Sacramento has entered into partnership in the undertaking business with Mr. Taylor.

A WEEK FULL OF SUGGESTIVE REAL ESTATE OPERATIONS

There Are Big Deals on Hand Which Indicate an Intense Interest in Oakland and Neighborhood Realty.

The week's developments show an approachable increase in interest in property of all kinds in Oakland, particularly in the business center. The First Methodist church property has apparently been sold to Eastern people, as the papers have been sent East. The only hitch that took place in the consummation of the deal related to the time that the church people should continue in occupation, the buyers, so it is represented, desiring immediate vacation, while the church people wanted time to look around for a new location. Although the result is not disclosed, it is evident that this matter has been satisfactorily adjusted, or the papers in the transfer would not have been forwarded.

As has already been noted in THE TRIBUNE, the transfer of the block on the east side of Broadway, between Ninth and Tenth streets, 125 feet on the former and 100 feet on the latter, has been confirmed. Nothing remains now to put the property in the possession of W. I. Reed, the buyer, save the confirmation of the sale by the court, which will take place next month.

For many weeks it has been the talk of the street that the Emporium and other large San Francisco retailers were seeking desirable locations for the establishment of their respective businesses on this side of the bay. Until this week these reports have been very elusive. The name of the Emporium has been associated with half a dozen desirable properties, but in each case the association lacked definiteness. This week, L. G. Brattin, Reed's agent for the east Broadway block, between Ninth and Tenth, has given positive assurance that the great department store company is an earnest candidate for the property and has made a definite offer for it, either for a long-term lease or an out-and-out purchase. Negotiations are now pending for one or the other. Then, again, the James Moffitt estate has been offered liberal terms for a lease of the property on the southwest corner of Eleventh and Franklin streets. The applicant wants, however, to lease the property for ninety-nine years, which the estate is unwilling to consider. While the agent of the estate is unwilling to disclose the name of the firm making the offer, he gives positive assurance that it comes from a large and responsible San Francisco business house, which shows the keen interest that is taken at present in Oakland by the leading merchants in the afflicted city across the bay and their earnest desire to obtain a footing here. As one well-posted citizen who is in close touch with these affairs puts it, "Most of the former customers of these big San Francisco dry goods establishments are permanently located now on the eastern shore of the bay, and inasmuch as they will not go to them on Van Ness avenue and Fillmore street to trade, they themselves must come to Oakland to recover it."

A splendid type of re-inforced concrete and tile-faced business blocks is now being built in Oakland. The six-story building shown in the above illustration, which has been specially photographed for the TRIBUNE is a fair representative of the type. It stands on the southwest corner of Thirteenth and Franklin streets and will soon be ready for occupation by the John Brauner Company, which sought refuge in this city immediately after the earthquake and conflagration of April, 1906, and shows in this structure its appreciation of what Oakland has done for it in giving its business an asylum, and the faith it has in the future of the Greater Oakland.

The old type of business blocks in Oakland did not rise above the one, two and three stories. Since the new era set in, the city's ambitions have grown and property-owners and business men have acquired a clearer understanding, and the elevation and general character of the new buildings which are being erected are more in consonance with the new conditions as they exist and with the future requirements of business as it promises to develop.

Preparations are being made for a host of a superior type of new buildings, like the one here presented, to be erected in the business quarters. The era of the low, cheap and perishable business structure is passing in a hurry in Oakland, and the new era of substantial A-class buildings, earthquake and fireproof, ascending to the seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth and twelfth stories in height, has set in to stay.

GREAT ACTIVITY IN THE NORTH END OF OAKLAND

Demand for Property Is Rapidly Increasing in That Part of the City.

There is marked activity in the real estate market in its relations to the northern part of the city. This is partly due to the extraordinary progress which is taking place in the way of building improvements in the neighboring territory within the city limits of Berkeley and the expansion of the retail district along Telegraph and San Pablo avenues.

The Corner Lot Company reports the sale of several lots recently on Telegraph avenue and on Grove street, between Twenty-fourth and Fortieth streets, and a steady demand at advancing prices. The activity in the whole of the northern part of the city is proved by the large number of new residences and other buildings which are going up.

FLOOD-MACKAY BLOCK ON CASTRO STREET SOLD

The New Owners Intend Converting the Improvement to Business Uses.

The west half of block 93, fronting on Castro, between Eighth and Ninth streets, and known as the James L. Flood and John W. Mackay block, has been sold by the Layman Real Estate Company for George Roth to R. B. Kitchener, of the Kitchener Printing Company, for $38,500.

The property has a frontage of 200 feet on Castro street and 150 feet on Eighth and Ninth streets. The new owner will at once remodel the big building which now stands on the property and adapt it for business purposes.

NEARLY $200,000 WORTH OF REAL ESTATE SOLD IN ONE WEEK

The Success of the Park Bond Election Has Stiffened Prices All Over the City.

"The best news of the week," said George W. Austin, "is the fact that we almost unanimously voted a million dollars to buy public parks, and that the world now knows that Oakland is out for progress."

"No longer can the old-timers crack jokes at Oakland. The manner in which we handled 200,000 people at the time of the earthquake was the first chapter of Oakland's history, and the voting of bonds for public parks is the beginning of the second."

"Just as soon as it was shown that the park bonds had been approved by such an overwhelming majority, there was a stiffening up of the realty market. The next day after I sold the northwest corner at Twentieth and Broadway to F. and J. Jordan, proprietors of the Hotel Athens and Hotel Crellin for approximately $100,000, the new owners are now talking of putting up a magnificent structure on this prominent corner."

HOW REALTY IS GOING UP

Wonderful Rise in Values in Berkeley Illustrated in One Instance.

BERKELEY, Jan. 19.—The wonderful rise in the value of Berkeley real estate is well illustrated in a story told by Moses Morris, who for nearly a quarter of a century has been a conductor on the local railroad.

When Berkeley was in its infancy, Mr. Morris reluctantly took, as the payment for a debt of $450, the lot at the northeast corner of Shattuck avenue and Bancroft way, the site upon which the new Masonic temple is being erected. As time went on, Morris gladly disposed of the chance to sell the corner for about $600.

Three years ago the Masonic Temple Association paid $8000 for the land, which is now considered to be worth at least three times that price.

MARVELOUS INCREASE OF BUSINESS IMPROVEMENTS

Oakland Is Making Strenuous Efforts to Accommodate Itself to New Conditions.

Scarcely a street in the business district in Oakland is free today from incumbrances and obstructions to traffic in the form of building materials. And on the principal streets, Broadway, Washington, Franklin, Webster, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth, signs of the marvelous activity in building improvements are to be seen. There are few buildings on either side of Broadway, between Seventh and Fourteenth streets for example, wherein changes are not being made either externally or in the interior to make them better adapted for the present demands of business. All of this indicates the strenuousness of Oakland's endeavors to accommodate itself to the new conditions which are becoming more exacting daily, owing to the continued extraordinary growth of population and the steady increase to the roll of business firms.

A GREAT DEMAND FOR MODERATE-PRICED HOMES

Many Real Estate Men Find It Difficult to Fill the Orders.

Nearly all of the real estate dealers in town report an extraordinary demand for residences costing from $2000 to $5000. Some firms have so many orders on their books for this class of dwellings that they declare it to be next to impossible at present to fill them. They have never before been confronted by such a perplexing situation. It is conclusive proof, however, that the influx of new population is steadily increasing.

IMPROVEMENTS AND GREAT ACTIVITY IN THE REAL ESTATE MARKET

THE METROPOLE ANNEX CHANGES OWNERSHIP

THE METROPOLE ANNEX.

The Deal Establishes a New Frontage Valuation for Jefferson-Street Property.

The Metropole Annex on Jefferson street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, was bought this week by the Oakland Combine from A. J. Snyder for about $100,000. The lot has a frontage of 56 feet and a depth of 109 feet.

Without considering the improvements, which consist of thirteen rooms above the two stories, the sale represents a ready value in that block on Jefferson street of approximately $1100 per front foot.

BERKELEY TO HAVE NEW BANK BUILDING

It Is to Be a $200,000 Eight-Story "Class A" Structure.

BERKELEY, Jan. 19.—Many sales have been made the past week by the local realty men, and several large building schemes have been announced, chief among which is the plan of the officials of the University Savings Bank to erect an eight-story class A structure on the site of the present building. The Berkeley National Bank and the University Savings Bank will occupy temporary quarters in the new Wright block on the northeast corner of Center street and Shattuck avenue. Arrangements were made yesterday to move the safe of the two banks across the street. As soon as the work of removal is completed, the old building will be torn down and the erection of the new structure begun. The new home of the University Savings Bank and the First National will cost nearly $200,000. It will have a frontage of 50 feet on Center street and 85 feet on Shattuck avenue. Two elevators will be installed in the new building and provisions will be made for a large safe-deposit vault in the basement. This vault will be constructed on the newest model, and when completed will be among the best in the country. President Baxter, of the Berkeley National, states that the rapid growth of Berkeley makes such a building necessary.

The two banks will occupy the ground floor, while the other seven stories will be fitted up into office rooms. The offices will be spacious, many of them being arranged in suites. The architects will be Howard and Galloway. The bank corporation recently bought property north of its present location. This includes the property now occupied by the Cooley Hardware Company and the Ferrier, Brock Company. By this purchase an additional 100 feet on Shattuck avenue was acquired and a depth of 135 feet. This site may later be used for building purposes, as the bank will build in such a way that an addition can be made to the new structure on the corner whenever it is deemed advisable.

WEST BERKELEY BUSINESS PROPERTY SALES.

Several good sales were made during the last few days by M. P. W. Albee. Among these is a block lying between Holyoke and Virginia and Second and Third streets, West Berkeley, with a frontage of 600 feet on the Southern Pacific tracks. This is an excellent site for manufacturing purposes and was sold recently by this firm, as also the Mary C. McLeavey property on the south side of Dwight way, between Shattuck avenue and Fulton street, containing two stores with flats above, sold recently by this firm, as also the Mary C. McLeavey property on the south side of Vine street, between Oxford and Walnut streets, in North Berkeley. The northwest corner of Camella and Third streets was also sold by Albee a few days ago. This site is in the heart of the manufacturing district of West Berkeley.

Among the big deals of the week was one closed between the First National Bank and Rosa M. Shattuck for the purchase of 40 front feet on Center street adjoining the bank building. It is understood that about $200,000 was involved. It is stated by the bank officials that this additional space, which is 78 feet in depth, will be the site of an annex soon to be built. Here will be located the savings department, known as the Berkeley Bank of Savings and Trust Company.

Orders were recently placed for the furnishings of the Hotel Claremont at a cost of $150,000. The fittings will make the immense building, which will be exceedingly picturesque architecturally, one of the most beautiful in the country. In old English style, the ex-

IMPROVEMENTS INCREASING ON WEBSTER STREET

A Big Lot on the Northeast Corner of Ninth Street Is Being Covered With stores.

Moss Improvements have been started on Webster street during the week. The lot at the northeast corner of Ninth street is to be covered with a three-story building for business purposes. The frame of the lower story has been partly erected. When the building is finished, the east side of Webster street from Ninth to Tenth will be a solid, three-story business block, where a short while ago only the frailest and most insignificant type of residences stood.

tailor will have a finish of white cement with black beams. The old English idea will also be carried out in the interior, where the wood finish will be of oak.

All the furniture, silver, linen and tapestries are being made from the special designs of a famous furnisher and will be of a distinct type. The clubhouse will be modeled after a well-known inn on the Great Coach road in England.

The original plans of the Claremont Hotel have been greatly enlarged, and the main building will now cost $450,000, which is $250,000 in excess of the original plans. The clubhouse will cost

DIGGING THE FOUNDATION FOR THE NEW ORPHEUM

The Playhouse to Be Ready for the Circuit on the 1st of August.

The Raymond Hotel building has been removed from the old Snell Seminary property, adjoining the First Congregational church on Twelfth street, and the work of grading the site for the foundation of the new Orpheum has begun. M. J. Laymance says the construction of the new playhouse will be pressed as fast as possible. It is intended that the building shall be ready for occupation August 1, the date set for the Orpheum circuit to come to Oakland for the first time.

A $30,000 DEAL IN A SEVENTEENTH-ST. LOT

Modern Business Buildings to Be Erected by the New Owner.

The Laymance Real Estate Company has sold, on account of Z. Luther, to J. S. Myers the two-story building lot, 37½ by 100 feet, situated on the north side of Seventeenth street, 150 feet west of Telegraph avenue, for approximately $30,000, being at the rate of $500 per front foot.

Mr. Myers contemplates erecting a modern business building on the property at once.

$150,000, and $75,000 will be laid out for the grounds. The total cost of the big enterprise will therefore reach nearly three-quarters of a million dollars.

A feature of the Hotel Claremont is that it cannot only be seen from all portions of Berkeley, but from San Francisco as well. In this respect it resembles the Hotel Fairmont across the bay. The hotel will be ready for occupancy by midsummer, and by that time it is expected that the Claremont branch of the Key Route and the Russell street electric line, which will run to the hotel, will have been laid.

AN EXPERT'S VIEWS OF OAKLAND'S GROWTH

FRED T. WOOD, of the Firm of Wood, Macdonald & Wood.

With the dawn of 1907 the outlook for a prosperous year for Greater Oakland is better than any previous time in its history. Although values in real estate are advancing rapidly, they are not anywhere near their true values. Many people imagine that because of the rapid advancement in prices values are fictitious. Not so; it is merely the awakening of the investing public to the fact that properties here are altogether too low. Business men are awakening to the advantages offered here and are coming from all parts of the country. The growth will undoubtedly be a steady one and not of the boom variety; consequently, during this year, prices will advance steadily, and investors wishing to speculate could hardly make a mistake any place in Greater Oakland.

In connection with the growth of Greater Oakland, we wish to add our views to the work being done by the TRIBUNE in the advancement of Greater Oakland. Outside of the value to us as an advertising medium, which, by the way, has thoroughly proved to be the best in this locality, we want to say that the paper itself as a newspaper is of the greatest value to Oakland as an advertising medium. Our only wish is that Oakland may grow as rapidly and be as good as the paper you are publishing at the present time.

We find in the last few months the better class of property is exchanging hands very rapidly and, as the time goes on, the demand increases. With the millions of dollars to be expended here by the railroads and other financiers, what will Oakland be five years from now? Not less than one-half million population. Now is the time to buy real estate.

Yours truly,
WOOD, MACDONALD & WOOD.
Per—Fred T. Wood.

BIG APARTMENT HOUSE GOING UP IN ALAMEDA

It Will Contain Fifty-Four Four-Room Sets—Many New Buildings Being Erected.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 19.—The Alameda Land Company is to expend about $75,000 in the erection of an apartment house at the corner of Morton street and Central avenue. The building is to contain fifty-four four-room apartments and will be one of the largest apartment houses on the coast.

Work has already begun on the structure. The lot has been cleared of the trees and the builders are ready to start work. Owing to the peculiar location of the lot, every apartment will have a frontage facing on the street. The lot is a gore between Central and Encinal avenues and Sherman and Morton streets. Work on the building is to be rushed along so that the building will be ready for occupancy about July.

NEW DANCE HALL PROJECTED.

Combs and Fisher, who are to build a large business house on Santa Clara avenue, near Park street, are considering the plan to make the upper part of the building into a large dance hall.

HOME BUILDING.

The flats and cottages built by Schuermann Brothers on Oak street, near San Antonio avenue, are now occupied. J. Spence is building a home on Cedar street, near the bay. In every section of the city, homes are being erected. The weather of the past week has somewhat interfered with the work, but many of the houses are so far progressed that inside work is being done. Two new cottages have been erected on San Jose avenue, near Broadway. Five cottages are now under course of construction on Broadway, between Encinal and San Jose avenues.

PERSONALS
M. A. Mansfield
526 9th St. Street.
There are men in ill-health, bad luck, obsessed by evil influences; born under malign aspects of solar energy, which causes depression, melancholy, mental agony, bad habits of personality, weakness, or are under the suggestion of an environment which creates losses, discords and strife.
This I undertake to obviate.
There is a Power! Subtle? Invisible? Supernatural? Call it what you will, which, when invoked in recognition of your needs, creates success, spontaneous progress, good luck, perfect health, it operates in all the spheres of your life. It enables you to participate in the brightest and most profitable of your wishes. Disease leaves you, youth, vigor, vitality return.

You become developed in body, soul, spirit for a perfect mortal-immortal existence.
I implant the controlling power in your nature so you will fascinate any one you desire; hasten marriage to the one of your choice; secure the best of all for yourself in all the spheres of your life. I enable you to participate in the brightest and most profitable of your wishes. Disease leaves you, youth, vigor, vitality return.

SAYS WOMAN TOOK MONEY

F. F. Moore Charges Negress With Stealing Ten Dollars.

While passing the corner of Seventh and Peralta streets about six o'clock last evening, F. F. Moore, 1371 Eighth street, was accosted by a colored woman, who grabbed him about the neck, stating that she was ill. Moore endeavored to free himself from the woman's grasp and, as he did so, she ran her hand into his pocket and stole a purse containing $10. Moore did not miss the money until the colored woman had left him and made her escape. Moore felt for his purse, becoming suspicious of the actions of his colored assailant, and told Policeman Fahy of his experience. The officer saw a colored woman disappearing down the street, and hurried after her, apprehending her at the corner of Fifth and Willow streets. The prisoner gave her name as Bessie Brown at the police station. A charge of grand larceny was placed against the Brown woman this morning, and she will appear in the police court Monday morning. Moore's purse and money were found near the sidewalk where the woman was found. The police believe that the Brown woman has been implicated in many similar robberies, and her case is being investigated by the detectives. For several months a colored woman, who has been stealing from unsuspecting white men, accosting them on the street, has eluded capture. Burglars entered the home of G. W. Brown, at 227 Fifty-third street, last night, forcing open a rear window. The Hosmer family was away at the time, and the thieves worked unmolested. Nearly all the rooms in the house were ransacked, but all that was stolen were a pair of opera glasses and a revolver. Hosmer has reported the burglary to the police.

WEALTHY MEN ARE INDICTED

Two More True Bills Returned in Coal Land Case in Utah.

SALT LAKE, Jan. 19.—At the offices of the United States District Attorney and the United States Marshal it was definitely stated today that the indictments returned yesterday by the Federal grand jury included Charles W. Freed, a wealthy furniture merchant of this city, and his son-in-law, Walter J. Flier. Mr. Flier is an engineer, mining expert, and capitalist, and is identified with some of the largest mining and irrigation enterprises in Nevada, Utah and Idaho. Freed and Flier, in connection with Don C. Robbins, a mining expert, and E. W. Senior, a lawyer, who were arrested last night, are charged with defrauding the Government in connection with the location and patenting of large bodies of coal lands near Huntington, Emery county, Utah. The four defendants have arranged for bonds in the sum of $3000 each. One other person was named in the indictment, but his identity will not be made known until he is arrested. Twenty-Year Battle. "I was a loser in a twenty-year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which turned the tide by curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A. M. Bruce, of Farmville, Va. Best for old Ulcers, Cuts, Burns and Wounds. See at Osgood Bros., druggists, Broadway, corner Seventh street, and Washington street, corner of Twelfth.

WOOLGROWERS IN CONVENTION

Interesting Papers read at Meeting of National Body in Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE, Jan. 19.—The morning session of the National Wool Growers' Association was occupied by papers on the twenty-eight-hour law, the wool shortage and other phases of the wool industry, and the reading of the secretary's and treasurer's reports. Fred W. Gooding, president of the Idaho Wool Growers' Association, recommended an amendment to the twenty-eight-hour law, providing for a speed limit for stock trains. He said the law was drafted by humanitarians who were not practical stock raisers, and their failure to insist on a speed limit made the law worse than useless. He charged that the railroads were in the habit of unloading sheep for feed and water in yards intended for cattle, and so arranged that not one sheep in a hundred could feed or drink. He suggested the formation of a government department to look after the shipment of livestock. Other papers read were: "Co-operation Among Sheepmen," by John H. H. Bearup, of Albuquerque, N. M.; "The Value of Livestock Exhibitions to Conventions," by J. H. Mayle, of Utah, and "The Car Shortage," by Colonel E. J. Bell, of Laramie, Wyo. Colonel Bell urged the uselessness of an antagonistic attitude towards railroad men on the part of stockmen. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $671, the year's receipts, and last year's balance being $3691, and expenditures $2950. The secretary's report showed a membership of 6000.

A Fortune for Investors

In the very heart of the Rich Goldfield Mines where you cannot lose. The famous Simmerone Property Goldfields' next sensation.

In the Simmerone property, we have a proven mine—not a gamble—that will soon be a sensation in mining circles and which bids fair to rival the richest ore producers in this rich district. The leasing company has a lease on the Simmerone mines for a year and in addition, absolutely own eight acres immediately adjoining, which is pronounced just as rich, if not richer than the original Simmerone itself. It is a well known fact that the Simmerone produced a large quantity of $5000 ore a year and a half ago, when they had to build a high fence around it as a precautionary measure against intruders. The company has day and night shifts hard at work, and intends to rush the development with great rapidity. The most modern class A machinery is being placed to further the work of development, and in a very short time the investors in this venture will be reaping a harvest. The company has placed upon the market a limited amount of its TREASURY STOCK at the very which, before the first of May, will be worth several times the purchase price. This stock is being snapped up quickly by the real wise ones, who can see a few weeks ahead, and who will be the greatest gainers by their foresight. There is yet time for you, so DO NOT LOSE THIS OPPORTUNITY of availing yourself of this chance; it may mean a fortune for you. In the opinion of expert mining men, a purchase of 500 shares of stock in the SIMMERONE LEASING AND MINING CO., at 20 cents per share, is the equivalent of a pledge to yourself of a gain of 100 per cent on your investment at the start, for we are confident that the stock will be selling at 40 cents per share within sixty days' time. Remember that you have a PERPETUAL OWNERSHIP in the adjoining eight acres, and that this stock is FOREVER NON-ASSESSABLE.

Moderate price of 20c a Share

RAPID TRANSIT MEANS QUICK PROFITS

There are facts you probably know but perhaps haven't made use of.

And here's a chance to apply them to YOUR PROFIT.

It's QUICK TRANSPORTATION that turns acreage into town lots. It's RAPID TRANSIT that builds houses on those lots. It's the meeting of CAR LINE with SUBURBAN TRAINS that creates business centers.

Right here in Berkeley we have a hundred proofs of the fact that TRANSPORTATION GOVERNS VALUES. The College Avenue car line doubled the values of the hill property above it. The Key Route has added $300 to the price of every residence lot in the Santa Fe Tracts and has increased the value of Adeline Street frontage from $30 to $70 per foot.

Every station from Alcatraz to Berryman offers additional proof.

It's the wise man who takes advantage of this law---the law that PRICES INCREASE as TRANSPORTATION is BETTERED. He buys a residence lot close to a future car line or suburban line. He picks up a bit of frontage near the crossing of future car line and railroad track. But he doesn't wait till the lines are built. It's TOO LATE then. Then he will pay a profit to the other fellow instead of pocketing it himself.

Study this a bit. Think of the possibilities of DWIGHT WAY TERRACE "where Key Route and car line meet."

Then apply this law

If you act quickly you won't be TOO LATE.
